Union Government

is concentrating its efforts to win the War. It has gone about raising reinforcements in the only practical way; under the Military Service Act, 1917. Laurier, Bourassa and their adherents admit their intention of holding up reinforcements so urgently needed in the trenches.

Where do YOU stand?

THE DUTY HILL

The task that comes on very great, from which you daily shrink in dread, will never detain while you wait And with the very eye clear ahead.

The traveler whose feet have been heavy on dusty slopes, in valleys deep, and on the rocky heights has learned that duty hills are always steep.

The duty that, day after day, you only learn from waiting still and wishing it could fade away, perhaps to live the duty hill.

The duty that you try to shun, that duty hill, when duty calls you keep. At last, to end them, quickly done, the duty hills are always steep.

Why wait when there is work to do? Why wait when there is work to do? Why wait when there is work to do? Why wait when there is work to do? Why wait when there is work to do?
