Rams butt-out opposition

The Acton Novice Rams lacrosse team won a pair of home and away games last Wednesday and Friday, running their 1990 regular season mark to 5-3-1.

Wednesday evening at the Acton Arena, the Rams played less than gracious hosts to Brantford, thumping the visitors 9-4.

Friday evening the Rams journeyed to London and turned back the hometown squad, 5-3.

The Rams played an excellent all-round game against Brantford and dominated throughout.

Acton led 3-0 after the first period and 6-3 after two frames. In the third period, the Acton offence continued to roll while the defence held fast as the Rams outscored Brantford 3-1 for the comfortable 9-4 win.

Kyle Artem paced the Rams sharpshooters, scoring three times and adding an assist for a four-point performance.

Richard Raju had two goals and an assist. David Lajeunesse scored twice, while Jeff Newman added a single marker.

Rams goaltender, Ryan Young, also picked up an assist.

London is the new team in Acton's zone this season and their goalie played a solid game despite being on the losing end of a 5-3 count.

Acton opened up a 1-0 first period lead over London and inched ahead, 2-1 after two periods.

The Rams outscored London 3-2 in the third period to seal the 5-3 triumph.

The scoring was liberally spread throughout the Ram lineup as Mike Krause, Paul Withers, Kyle Artem, David Lajeunesse and Thomas Wolfer all scored single counters.

Wolfer chipped in with an assist as did Chris Lee and Richard Raju.

Ryan Young saw action in the Acton nets.

The Acton Novice Rams next home game is scheduled for this coming Wednesday (July 4), 8 p.m. at Acton Arena against Arthur.

The Acton Tyke lacrosse squad posted a victory over Orangeville II, while dropping encounters to K-W Braves and Brantford in the team's most recent games.

The Acton Tykes bowed 5-3 to the K-W Braves, lost 11-5 to Brantford, then rebounded to blast Orangeville II, 13-5.

Against the K-W Braves, the Acton Tyke found themselves behind 3-1 after two periods. Acton matched a pair of goals with the Braves in the third stanza but the two-goal outburst proved to be too little-too late.

Jason (M.D.) McGuire scored twice for Acton, with Mathew Hall scoring a goal and adding two assists. Eddie Hess also had an assist.

Against Brantford, Acton led 4-3 after the first period, then the visitors exploded for eight goals over the final two frames, to but one reply for Acton, to wrap-up the 11-5 win.

Mathew Hall scored twice and added an assist for Acton, while singles went to Marty Gordon, Jason (M.D.) McGuire and Ryan Weatherall. Joey McGrath also chipped in with an assist for Acton.

An aroused Acton squad buried Orangeville II with a third period offensive explosion in the 13-5 win.

Acton led 6-2 after two periods then outscored Orangeville II 7-3 in the third period to leave no doubt about the eventual outcome.

Ryan Weatherall was almost a one-man wrecking crew against Orangeville II, scoring five times.

Mathew Hall and Brandon Valente each scored three times for Acton while Jason McGuire scored twice.

Jason (M.D.) McGuire had an assist.

The Acton Tykes next home game is against Guelph, July 4, at the Acton Arena, 7 p.m., preceding the Acton Novice Rams 8 p.m. game against Arthur.

No singing in the rain

Scorekeeper, Brenda Lee (no kidding) didn't appear to be too bothered by the rain that plagued last weekend's 8th Annual Georgetown Baseball Association Peeewe Tournament staged at the Fairgrounds. Unfortunately, the hometown favorites didn't fare all that well and Milton walked off with championship laurels. (Herald photo)

contributed assists. Corey Lindsey also had an assist in the winning effort. For the Green team, Gary Ginsler had three goals, while
