

'Big Bird' to visit Kitchener Auditorium

An unannounced visitor from another galaxy stirs up some excitement on Sesame Street when the all-new Sesame Street Live "Big Bird and the ABC's," comes to the Kitchener Memorial Auditorium Complex, September 6 through September 9.

Big Bird and his pals are always ready to welcome newcomers to their neighbourhood, but this time, the new kid on the block is like no one they've ever met before - she's out-of-this-world! Her name is Tee Hee. She's a loveable alien from planet Crayon, created especially for "Big Bird and the ABC's" by Jim Henson. When she finds her way to Sesame Street, the stage is set for non-stop singing, dancing and a special message about understanding.

The challenge facing the residents of 123 Sesame Street is that Tee Hee doesn't communicate the way they do. She's never even heard of the alphabet. It's up to the Muppets to lend their extraterrestrial friend a paw to bridge their communication gap with a lively session about the ABC's.

This delightful "learning experience," starring Big Bird, Bert, Ernie, Grover, Prairie Dawn, Oscar the Grouch, The Count and Cookie Monster sparkles with upbeat numbers featuring Sesame hits "C is for Cookie," "AB-C-DEF-GHI," "The People in Your Neighbourhood" and "Sing." A collection of new tunes including "Come on and Count," "The Laughter Song" and "Grover Rap" rounds out the musical score. The audience is invited to clap, dance and sing along during many of these segments as the show builds to the finale.
