Girl's soccer team defeats tournament hosts twice

Challenge 90 Soccer Invitational Tournament was held this past weekend, July 28th, at Woodstock. The defence, led by Tracey Mettler, proved to be unbeatable and provided little opportunity for the opposition players.

However, whenever Woodstock's players succeeded in getting through, Leigh Shillington was equal to the task and provided strong goaltending, earning shutouts in both games played.

Georgetown Girls defeated their Woodstock hosts 5-0 and 3-0. Strikers for the Georgetown team were Joy Walraven (3), Julie Pollock (1), Amy Sykes (1), Amy Longworth (1), Marci Roy (1) and Danay Guignard (1).

The following players also deserve honourable mention for a strong team effort: Cheryl Rivard, Erin Gogan, Mary Donnelly, Tanya Martin, Danielle Cary, Lindsay Buckles and Cortney O'Brien.
