Blue Jays win game 13-12 by beating Expos in the ninth

AUGUST 8TH
Shaw Trophy Blue Jays played a close game against the Dairy Queen Expos, moving ahead in the last inning for a 13-12 win.

For the Blue jays, Greg Bidwell pounded in two home runs and had three base hits. Simon Ford also displayed good batting skills with two home runs while fellow team member Chris Hunzinger banded in one homer. Mike Campbell had two base hits and two RBIs.

In the field, Matt Seaman and Simon Ford teamed up for some good throws and catches between first and second base to put out two runners.

The formidable Expos played a hard game to the end. Billy Campbell, Ryan Schofield, Jon Borg and Andrew Slihas are all credited with two base hits each. Matt Walanga earned himself two RBIs and three base hits, while fellow player Gordon Everett also had two RBIs.

Most outstanding player for the Expos was Sean Curry with two base hits and a home run.

The Kaspers Red Sox opposed the Doug and Diane Penrice Royal City Padres for a 10-4 win.

Adam Stoyles played well for the Kaspers, giving them their only home run of the game.

Other stars were Matt Jones with a double and Brett Hoare for a great double play at first base.

Beating the dog days of summer

A lot of younger residents of Georgetown know how to keep cool in the summer have fun at the same time. At the indoor pool on Wednesday, about 50 of them wound up playing on an inflatable dog raft that the recreation department had rented for a few days. (Herald photo by Robert Risk)
