W.I. tour temple

Norval Women's Institute members enjoyed lunch at the Pine Valley Cafe, Norval, on Thursday, Aug. 16. The food was good and the service great. The afternoon was arranged by Dorothy McLean and Norma Thompson. Membes took a guided tour of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, at Highway 7 and Dixie Road.

The New Toronto Temple, one of only two in Canada, is of white stone exterior with a 150 foot spire, topped by a statue of the angel of Morni. Hand-painted ceilings add to the beauty of the rooms, along with huge crystal chandeliers. Twelve life-sized oxen support the baptismal font in the baptistry, and marriages for members only, are performed in the six sealing rooms. Many beautiful large religious paintings grace the walls throughout the temple. Temples are sacred places, open to faithful members. Baptism and marriages are performed there. There are 44 temples in 23 countries. Temples are closed on Sundays (worship services are held in chapels).

Halton resident dies

A life-long resident of Halton, James C. Cunningham, died at Milton District Hospital on July 30, at the age of 90 after a short illness.

He was born on the Sixth Line, Esquesing, the son of Thomas P. and Lizzie Coulson Cunningham. He attended Hornby Public School and Milton High School.

Following his marriage to Myrtle Featherstone, he farmed on the Seventh Line for several years, then worked at the Ontario School for the Deaf, and the Ontario Agriculture Museum.

He exhibited vegetables at rural Fall Fairs and the Royal Winter Fair in Toronto.

He is survived by his wife Myrtle Cunningham, a daughter - Marion

Le Riche Marshall, and a son, John F. Cunningham, as well as seven grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

He was a member of the St. Clair Masonic Lodge No. 135 Milton.

Rev. Peter Barrow conducted the service from the J. Scott Early Funeral Home, Milton, on Aug. 2. Interment was at the Evergreen Cemetery, Milton. A Masonic service was held on Wednesday evening.

Pallbearers were Marshall Neilson, R.F. Ford, Frank Chisholm, Craig Royce, John Heakzema and Dennes Cheevers.

Clarification

Because of typographical error, the names of Cecil and Marion Patterson were omitted from the birthday party of his mother, Mrs. Ella Patterson of Milton, in last week's Norval news.
