

McNabbs celebrate 40th anniversary

John and Doris McNabb of R.R. 2, Georgetown, celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary Sunday with an open house at Hillcrest United Church.

They were assisted by their children, Lois from Victoria, B.C., Ken of Georgetown and Marilyn and her husband Grant Gooding of Milton with their sons David and Scott.

On display were the wedding attire, and pictures, showing the couple and their family down through the years. About 140 friends and relatives attended from Woodstock, Guelph, Rockwood, Paisley, Streetsville, Toronto and the local area.

In the evening, a dinner for the wedding party and immediate family was held at the Mohawk Inn, Campbellville.

Forthcoming marriage

The forthcoming marriage of Tena Laroche and Tom Sykes of Georgetown has been announced by their parents, to take place in Sept. at Norval United Church.

Several showers have been held in honor of Tena's marriage.

Mrs. Janet Fidler and her daughter Debbie of Georgetown, entertained girlfriends of Tena's
