

Deepest sympathy extended to late comrade

Members of Branch 120 wish to express their deepest sympathy to the family of our late comrade Mary Doane, who passed away this past week. "May you be on God's Right Hand."

At the Presidents Supper held on Thursday, September 27th, President Hank Russell on behalf of all members present, thanked the Ladies Auxiliary and Banquet Convenor M. Clarke and her smiling servers for their as usual excellent roast beef dinner.

The Saturday afternoon Meat Draw will have a "Surprise Draw" in addition to the regular and Early Bird Draws. See Dave McNeilly Ways and Means Chairman and his committee for your "Surprise Tickets." Support your Branch and at the same time give your freezer a boost.

Bye The Bye Mr. Prefect wishes to apologize to Bob McNeilly. You were right, the final score was 7 to 5.

Sports Flash

Sunday saw a very successful Blue Jay booster day attended by 53 members of the local pigeon club, witnessed the Birds rip a few holes in the P.U. Sox.

Surprisingly 3 Bo Sox fans, from Plymouth? Mass., Shirley Dearn, Patricia Cavechi and Nancy Neil, obviously lost their directions. Instead of attending the blowout by the Jays at Fenway, arrived in the BIRDS NESTING GROUNDS, in time to witness the 10 to 5 dumping of their beloved Sox.

The 6th inning stretch routine, led by the Branch 120 Funshine Girls, stirred up the locals.

Numerous prizes were awarded by management in appreciation of the fan turnout, 2 of which provided by local fan Jean Thomas, were surprising and colourful additions to the awards. Travelling back to Boston with the visitors, was a Red Sox Voodoo doll, trouble for the Sox?

Thanks go to our out of town visitors, the Blue Jay fans, the House Chairman, the ever friendly bartender, you all "Made our day".

Ladies auxiliary report

This past weekend turned out to be a lucky weekend for Georgetown's "E" crib team, when they finished first in the crib tournament in Georgetown. This qualifies this team to go on to the district round of crib. The members of this top team are: Hazel Dumper, Lynda Carney, Marion Carney and Marjorie Tutty. Nice cards girls.

The low went to G'town "B" team, who also did well.

Draw results for G'town were: Marion Carney 1st, Hazel Dumper, Mary Russell, Barb Reid.

4-H Club in full swing

By BETTY SOJKA

Ballinafad's chapter of the 4-H Club is in full swing now, with a group of twelve members meeting every Monday evening. Meetings are held at the United Church from 7-9 p.m. Ericka Mitchell is the press reporter for this session. Lynn Sinclair and Linda Mitchell are the leaders, for this "Bread Venture", which is the topic of this club.

So far, members have learned much about making bread. This new knowledge includes the importance of following recipe directions precisely, the different kinds of yeasts and scores of tips such as kneading the bread too much will lead to the bread being tough. The group bakes bread at their meetings. Up to this point, they have mastered the art of making white, whole, and french bread.

The baseball field is getting more work done to it this week. The infield fence has been raised the two feet as per the direction given by Erin Township Council. This modification will make it safer for players sitting in the box. Cement has been poured, and posts inserted for the outfield fence. Fill has been brought in to level out centre field, and to ensure an even height of fence.

Time is getting short to buy your tickets for the October 6th dance. For just $6.00 per person, you are assured a great evening full of fantastic music supplied by a D.J. The menu is potluck, so bring along something. Potlucks are famous at these dances, as many take such time and care to create a sumptuous delight, where it be a salad, chili, shepherd's pie, or chocolate brownies.

The proceeds from this dance are destined for the Community Centre sports facilities. Your support, by coming out and bringing along your friends will be most appreciated. Tickets are available at the Ballinafad General Store. The September newsletter should be received by now, with the recent mailing. Included with this newsletter was a flyer giving details of the October 13th Art Auction at the Community Centre. This is going to be a spectacular evening, and not one to be missed. An amazing selection of art from Canadian, international and local artists are to be auctioned off. What a terrific way to make an investment. If you need something to touch up that room in your house or office, this is an ideal opportunity for you. Hope to see you there. Advance tickets of $5.00 can be purchased by calling Sue Attard at 877-8964, and are also available at the Ballinafad General Store. Tickets will be $7.00 at the door. If you can assist on this evening the Hall Board would really appreciate your help. Please call Karen Smith at 853-2771.
