Acton Condo League Chiefs win final 11-5

By WILLIAM WILKINSON
Herald Special

On Sunday, Sept. 23, the sun was on it's way out. Finally, the lights came on, and we could finish the game. It was Popa Nicks Chiefs and Carpet Farm in the championship final. Popa Nicks was at the top or close to the top of the league all year long. Carpet Farm had finished the regular season tied for third. The Chiefs had lost the regular season title on the last weekend to the Acton Dukes.

The Acton Dukes had finished first overall, but had a bad round robin on Saturday and ended up in consolation final against the Halton Hills Merchants. The Merchants had worked their way through three rounds of playdowns to reach the final.

Batting around in the second inning gave the Dukes an 8-2 lead. They never looked back, taking the consolation title 12-8.

In the championship final, Popa Nicks chose the third inning to bat around, collecting seven runs and an 8-2 lead. When all the dust had cleared, the final score was 11-5 for Popa Nicks.

Congratulations to all the winners, losers and teams for a successful year. Our 11 teams this year was the largest in Condo League history.

To the winners, stay in shape for next, because the rest of us will. To the losers, there is always next year.

Correction

In the Sept. 26 edition of the Halton Hills Herald sports section, the winner of the junior golf tournament was incorrectly identified as Peter Armstrong. The actual winner was Ryan Haye, who won the Peter Armstrong trophy as the junior closing day champion at the North Halton Golf Club. The Herald regrets the error.
