

School spirit

Some members of the Georgetown cheerleading squad showed up on Wednesday to cheer the junior boys football team. Their presence was appreciated by the team, but they still lost 23-8 to St. Thomas

Head to head action

Rebel quarterback Ian Sinclair sizes up the opposing line before taking the snap from his centre during a game at GDHS field on Wednesday. The junior

Rebels played a solid game, but lost 23-8 to the visiting St. Thomas Aquinas Raiders. (Herald photo by Robert Risk)

Fishing Derby offers big prizes

Fishing enthusiasts from the Halton Hills area could win thousands of dollars in cash and prizes by entering the Molson Export Big Fish Contest.

The contest is the province's broadest based fishing competition, with entry forms available at over 4,000 locations across Ontario. Any angler 19 years or older with a valid fishing licence may enter to win over $100,000 in cash and prizes in either the Catch and Eat and Live Release categories. The contest runs from April 15 to Nov. 30, 1990. All entries must be received by Dec. 6, 1990.

The contest is a program of the Ontario Federation of Anglers and Hunters. Anyone with questions or wanting more information can call

Cathy Lefebvre at (416) 391-4644.
