Dedication service

A special dedication ceremony was held Friday outside the offices of the Halton Hills Hydro Commission in Acton. Friends, family, co-workers and dignitaries paid their respects to the memories of former Halton Hills Hydro Commissioner, Doug Mason and Hugh Campbell, former Manager of Operations for Halton Hills Hydro who both passed away before completion of the new Halton Hills Hydro complex in Acton. In memory of Mr. Mason and Mr. Campbell, trees were planted and on Friday plaques were unveiled honoring their accomplishments in Halton Hills. Pictured above, from left to right, taking part in the dedication services, were George Herrington, Customer Services for Halton Hills Hydro, Ken Hodgson, a Supervisor of Operations in the Lines Department of Halton Hills Hydro, Halton Hills Mayor Russ Miller, Murt Allison, Chairman of the Halton Hills Hydro Commission, Roger Haggett, who will be replacing Mr. Mason as a Halton Hills Hydro Commissioner, Halton Hills Hydro Commissioner Bill Smith, Jerry Trudell, General Manager of Halton Hills Hydro and Halton Hills Hydro Commissioner, Jim Fisher. ## N.H.A.D.A. holding Halloween party

The North Halton Association for the Developmentally Handicapped will be holding a Halloween Party Saturday at St. John's United Church, Guelph Street, Georgetown, as part of the association's Saturday Centre Recreational Respite Program offered to developmentally handicapped children.

The association is presenting the party to increase community awareness of one of the N.H.A.D.H. program services geared toward children.

The association also views the party as an opportunity to express the need for funding sponsorship and volunteers.

The N.H.A.D.H. is a member agency of Halton Hills and Milton United Ways.

Artisans schedule calligraphy course

The Credit Valley Artisans are offering a two-day course in calligraphy this Sunday and November 4 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Susan Nelson, a well-known professional calligrapher and artist from Guelph, will be the instructor.

Participants will be introduced to Gothic script in the first sesion. The second session will cover the making and printing of personalized Christmas cards using a simple printing technique. This course is suitable for beginners as well as the intermediate.

For further information contact Frank Anthony, Registrar at 877-5856 between 6 p.m. and 8 p.m.

Special guest

The Georgetown Kinsmen Club had a special guest on hand last Wednesday evening in the person of Dave Murdoch, one of Canada's two Forensic Climatologists. Forensic Climatologists deal with weather facts and how they affect crimes and scenes of crimes. Mr. Murdoch, now retired, owns his own consulting firm, Weather Facts. He was recently involved in providing expert testimony in the Air Ontario plane crash in Dryden, Ont. He will be a guest speaker at the upcoming World Wide Congress of Homicide Investigators to be held in Kansas City and hosted by the American Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI).
