How To Write A Good Classified Ad

1. Start your ad with the merchandise you are selling. This makes it easier for the reader to locate your advertisement.
2. Always include the price of the item you are selling. Many readers in Classified will not respond to an ad which does not include a price.
3. Place yourself in the readers position. Ask what you would like to know about the merchandise you are selling. Include information such as brand name, colours and other specific descriptions in your ad and you will receive a quicker response from the reader.

The Herald will not be responsible for more than one insertion of a classified ad containing an error.
 "The advertiser agrees that the publisher shall not be liable for damages arising out of errors in advertisements beyond the amount paid for the space actually occupied by that portion of the advertisement in which the error occurred, whether such error is due to the negligence of its servants or otherwise and there shall be no liability for non-insertion of any advertisement beyond the amount paid for such advertisement.
 The publisher reserves the right to edit, revise, classify or reject any advertisement."

CARD OF THANKS

I WOULD like to thank the many relatives, friends and neighbours for the many acts of kindness and sympathy at the time of Mike's death and since then. Many, many warm thanks. Betty Doyle and families.

I WOULD like to convey my thanks to relatives, family and friends, Belles and Beaus, for the cards, phone calls, gifts and visits, while in Brampton Hospital and since returning home. They sure make you feel better.
 Monica Hancock.

WE WOULD like to thank our families, friends and neighbours for the many cards, gifts and phone calls, all who called at our home and also those who attended the party at St. Alban's Parish Hall to help us celebrate our 60th Wedding Anniversary. We thank you all from the bottom of our hearts for all your kindness. God bless, Tom and Vi Haines.
