Summer wedding highlighted by antique car cavalcade

By KAY WILSON

A pretty summer wedding took place on July 14, when Susan Early and Jamie Galbraith were married in Grace United Church, Brampton.

Susan is the daughter of Gordon and Peggy Early of RRI, Norval and now of Barry's Bay, and Jamie is the son of Doug and Betty Galbraith of Delhi, Ontario.

Organist was Bruce Nuhm and soloist was Helen Nuhm, who sang "The Lord's Prayer and Wedding Prayer." Both are cousins of the bride.

Susan, given in marriage by her father, looked lovely in a Victorian-style gown, with shoulder-length veil.

Attending the bride as Maid-of-Honor was Kerry Sutherland, and bridesmaids were Lisa Taylor, Karen Booth and Kathy Early. Jr. bridesmaid was Katie Hall. All wore cocktail-length gowns, the Maid-of-Honor in blue and the bridesmaids in pink.

The groom was attended by Joe Bratley as Best Man. Ushers were Paul Garrett, Tony Hubinger, and Wade Persons. Ringbearer was Everett Rooke. All wore grey tuxedos.

The bridal party was taken from the church in a cavalcade of three antique Model-T cars. Ray Whaley's 1923 Ford Touring, Gordon Hume's 1927 Ford Touring and Spencer Wilson's 1927 Ford Coach. Following picture-taking at Chinguacousy Park, the bridal party were taken to the Holiday Inn for the wedding reception.

Master of Ceremonies at the reception was Brian Batstone, a friend of the family.

Following a wedding trip to Florida, the couple are residing in Simcoe, Ontario.

Prior to their wedding the couple were entertained at several showers. Jamie's aunt, Dot Plat, of Simcoe hosted a miscellaneous shower for the family. Kathy Early, sister of the bride and Kerry Sutherland, hosted a personal and linen shower at Kathy's home. Lisa Taylor of Brampton entertained at a kitchen shower and Joan Booker of Fergus held a miscellaneous shower. The Pinegrove Community held a presentation party and Bruce Thatcher and Anne Wilson presented a brass table lamp and a sum of money. Susan Alexander read the address.

Norval News

Rev. Walter Beecham Inducted

A Covenanting Service was held for the three point charge of Home Huttonville and Norval United Churches, with Huttonville hosting the service on Sunday evening last.

Rev. Norman Greene opened the service with the hymn "Stand up, Stand up, for Jesus". Following the scripture, Rev. Neil Parker of Inglewood, gave the sermon on "Total Commitment". A joint choir of the three churches, sang a special number "Come into My Heart Lord Jesus" with Glenn Laidlaw and Lorraine Lawrence taking the duet part.

Rev. John Smith of the Laurel and Camilla churches had charge of the Covenanting Service and inducted the Rev. Walter Beecham into the churches of Home, Huttonville and Norval.

Hymn "Breathe on Me Breath of God" closed the service. A social hour followed.

New Baby

Congratulations to Elgin and Ina Terry, RR2, Norval, on the birth of their second grandson, Sean Michael, Oct. 7 at the Georgetown and District Memorial Hospital. Proud parents are Kenneth and Barbara Terry of Acton. Brother for Steven. Seventh grandchild for Bill and Marion Armstrong of Georgetown.

"Nutri/System added flavour to my life and helped me lose 100 lbs."

"I used to crave food all the time, and my eating was getting out of control. Then I went to Nutri/System. They helped me lose all the weight I wanted and I still got all the flavorful food I craved. Mouth-watering dishes like Mexican Pasta and Chicken Polynesian.

And wonderful desserts like Apple Cinnamon Cupcakes and Chocolate Pudding. Now, my life's taken on a new flavor, too. It's upbeat and fun. And I'm loving every minute of it!

Artisans offer course

The Credit Valley Artisans are offering a four week course in oil painting on Thursday evenings starting November 8. Georgetown resident Shirley Brambley will be the instructor.

With over 20 years of painting experience in a variety of medium, Mrs. Brambley participates in juried art shows and has won several national awards. Her paintings have graced the walls of many galleries including The Gallery in the Halton Hills Cultural Centre. Mrs. Brambley has taught oil painting at the Ontario Business College in Belleville and is currently workshop co-ordinator for the Central Ontario Art Association and past president of the Palette and Pencil Club, a guild of the Credit Valley Artisans.

The course will cover oil painting using the palette knife technique and is suitable for beginners or advanced brush painters who have not worked with a palette knife. In the first session, students will be introduced to the technique. During the remaining sessions students will use the palette knife technique to create an oil painting. Previous painting experience is not required. The course will be held at Cedarvale Cottage in Cedarvale Park.

For further information contact Frank Anthony, Registrar, at 877-7992 between 6 p.m. and 8 p.m.
