

Halton Darts League looking to start youth section

The Halton League is trying to set a youth section in motion. I believe Dave Scutt and Terry Hancock of O'Tooles and Ian MacDonald, McGibbon, are the prime motivators.

There could be seven or eight players already interested and premises are being sought for Sunday afternoons.

Interested youngsters from 12-18 are invited to contact one of Monday night players, whom, we hope, will assist. Contact through Mike Ppper, Mobile Sound. Mountview will also bring information.

That's promising news. Now to not so good news. Some Halton teams continue to fail to hand in game sheets within the laid down time frame and lose three points per offense. Where a captain leaves his/her game sheet with the opposition and it is late, both teams lose points. That is, in most cases. So far, seven or eight late filings, which is not good at all.

What was good form was McGibbon No. 1's away win at Hollywood by 10-4. It was a hard slog with few highlights. Lloyd and Bruce Sheppard and Brad Youmans shot 140s. Stan

Rhynold, 135 and Ian McDonald, 132 replied.

McBinnon No. 2 looked like upsetting Exchange No. 2 with three of the first four singles under their belts. However, that was all and the visitors took the remaining 10 sets. The only extra point came from Tim McGuire with 133.

Time Out carry on their winning ways with a 13-1 win at Copper Kettle No. 2. Ian Grant and Roisin Shields both scored 140 for Kettle. Kettle No. 1 scored a little better but by one as they lost 2-11 to O'Tooles No. 1. Mike Pepper shot a 180 after the same in practice and Kevin Baldwin topped 140. O'Tooles No. 3 scored many extra points in a right royal battle with George and Dragon No. 2. Dave Scutt (2), Paul Kirby (2), Shirr Penfold, Chris Scutt and Kim Smid all scored 140. Marty Wheeler and Bonnie Schell each scored 132.

George darts were not idle either. Eric Fuller and Ron Scarlett both fired 180, Brian Beaumont (3) and Mark See (2) shot 140s. The result was always in doubt and ended 9-5 to George. O'Tooles No. 2 went to George and Dragon No. 3 and left with a 10-4 win. Terry Hancock shot 180 with support from Dave Nicholls, 140, and Ron Duvall, 132. Peter Conway shot 136 for luckless George.

No sheet and result from George No./Exchange No. 1, each team's second no result. Just have to mention Gail Sheppard, Marie Grooten, Sheryl Wakefield and Patty Sheppard - they won their team match against McGibbon No. 1 for Hollywood. Monica Southon, Andrea Clifford and Carol Cabral were the ladies points winners. Alison Colter was the only Time Out point dropper. Kevin Baldwin was involved in the loss of O'Tooles No. 1 points.

On Wednesday, Panthers indeed joined the first division and what a baptism. They met Snow-jacks Hustlers in an uncompromising mood and lost 1-8, yet better finishing might have taken another two sets at least. Ron Scarlett opened 138 and scored 140 as did Rod and Beau Beaumont. Henry Graham also scored 140 and finished 114 with three quick darts. Meanwhile, Westenders and Ensigns had a lengthy match which 'Enders took by 7-2. Denn Thorogood had five opens, one of 112, and two 140s. Eric Fuller shot 138.

Bulldogs lost 3-6 to High Rollers. Brad Hale shot 121, Jay Bishop 120 and Dave Robinson 119 and Don Eady closed 99. Hunter Carroll scored 125 and two tons. Steeprock and Gasketman Cutters had a tussle before 'Rock won 5-4 with the last three sets wins. Jim Charter and Paul Kirby shot 140, Rick Harden scored two of them. Tons and above came from Randy Hunt, Mark See, Ian McDonald, Hugh Smid and Bob Nicholson. Smid also opened five for a good match.

Bill McCartney opened 100 and Arch Anderson scores 131 as Inter County win a close one with Outlaws. Todd Axford and Dave Dickie each shot over the ton. Bandits struggled against second division leaders, Acadian Pools in losing 2-7. Bryan Turner scored 123. Mike Finn shot 140 and high scores went to Glen Monaghan and Bruce Stevens among others. Fireman 4, Aces 5 in another close match, Rob Wilson scoring 140.

Taxmen continue to show well and this week in particular. Not expecting to play, as the odd team out, they managed to muster three players and won 5-4. Graham Keating shot 140 and 100 with Roger Moore getting three tons. Jim Watson opened five and Jim Franks three.

The Niagara Frontier Open tourney takes place from 9-11 November. Details at the playing bars in town with competition in open draw doubles, mixed triples and four-person teams. In most cases the last 32 win the prize money, at least recovering entrance fees.

Darts Ontario Zone shoots open 25th November and Halton Region will be at the Georgetown Legion, registration closing at 1:00 a.m.
