

GDHS Athletes of the Week

Kristy Johnson and Jim Sheldon were chosen as this week's Georgetown District High School athletes of the week for their recent efforts in sport. Johnson, a member of the Rebel cross country team, finished third out of 51 runners in the 4,000 metre race at the Golden Horseshoe Athletic Competition at the Kelso Conservation Area to qualify for the all-Ontario championships in London today. Sheldon kicked a 25-yard field goal with just seconds remaining in their game against Burlington to give the senior Rebel football team a 29-27 victory. (Herald photo)

Beavers hold on for tie

On Saturday, Oct. 27, the Beaver Lumber Major Novice Rep. Team invaded the Johnston Arena in Streetsville, and skated away with a 1-1 tie.

The first period was highlighted by a goal for Georgetown by Ryan Bobor, and assisted by a newcomer to the team, Joshua Travers.

The Georgetown team did not enjoy territorial advantage but held their 1-0 lead into the last half of the third period. Goaltender Tyler Pearce stood out and held the Georgetown team in the game. Finally, with four minutes left to go, Streetsville scored. It was a hard shot, high on the glove side just inside the post.

Georgetown made a valiant effort to win the game, with three in the last 15 seconds.

Bryan Stuttard played a strong defensive game, with Jamie

Larocque, in his first year of rep. hockey, adding offensive spark.

On Saturday, Oct. 28, the Beaver Lumber Major Novice Rep. Team were shut out 2-0 by the Brampton Major Novice Rep. Team at Georgetown's Memorial Arena.

It was a very exciting game with the second goal coming in the third period. The game included a penalty shot that was awarded to the Brampton team. The Georgetown goaltender, Ryan Carter, made an excellent save on a deke by the Brampton forward.

Notable Georgetown contributors included a solid defensive effort by Scott Ellis, and Brent McClung, combined with offensive direction by Matthew Hotham and Jason Campbell. It was another nail-biting game, with a strong effort by the whole team.

3-3 record for Midgets

By IAN WARD
Herald Special

After a home opener Oct. 6 against Erin, Georgetown's Sunny Acres Midget Team played five straight away games and stand with a record of 3-3.

Outscoring Erin, Milton and Orangeville and coming up a little short with Stoney Creek, Milton and Streetsville, Sunny Acres coach Carson Minich is convinced the team is capable of beating every team in the league.

Understanding that this year's team being made up of six major and 11 minor age midget players, very few of whom have played together as a unit in the past, it will take some time for the players to fully develop together.

With the encouraging attitude of the coaching staff and players, the Midget "AA" team will unquestionably strengthen throughout the hockey season and be on top for the playoffs.

Representing Georgetown, for this year are: Goal - John Katsillers and Marc St. Pierre, Defence - Mitch Butt, Jake Poulstrup, Ryan Ward, Justin Wees, Jeff Pasma and Shawn Pearson, Forwards - Brent Couling, Dustin Thompson, Greg Dobbin, Mark McIntyre, Brad Tutt, Tim Presswood, Todd Wees, Greg Dawson and Doug Crawford.

Working with Carson Minich this season is Terry Wees who will concentrate all his hockey expertise on the defensive players.

Sunny Acres next home game is at Alcott Arena on Nov. 5 at 9:00 p.m. vs. Brampton.

Novice Sabres defeat Erin

The Acton Novice Leathertown Sabres won their Oct. 24 exhibition game at home over Erin by a close 4-3 score, scoring the winner with just under two minutes to play in the game.

Previous to this match, both teams were undefeated, and strong goaltending by both Acton's Andrew Coe and Erin's Justin Babin shut down most of the scoring chances.

The Ryan Young-Shawn Weatherall-Paul Withers line enjoyed a strong game, with Young netting two and Weatherall getting another. Weatherall also set up Young for the game winner.

The Sabres are off to Port Dover for a tournament today and will be back at home Sunday to play Woolwich.
