Juno winner featured at John Elliott Theatre

Halton Hills children can enjoy the musical sounds of Sandra Beech whose award-winning talents will be on stage at the John Elliott Theatre, Sunday, (tomorrow).

Her performance, sponsored by the University Women's Club of Georgetown, is the first SUPER SUNDAY SERIES of concerts for children aged 3 to 10 years.

The singer/songwriter won a

Juno Award in 1981 for her best-selling album "Inch by Inch". Her talents and wonderful rapport with children continue to wow audiences the world over.

Performing since the age of four, Sandra possesses the magic ingredient that enables children to use their imagination.

The second in the series will be held on January 13, 1991. The husband and wife team known as JOIN HANDS will delight audiences with their puppetry "magic". The third and final show is MORGAN'S JOURNEY - a one-man clown act that takes children from his miraculous "Birth" and continues on a journey of exploration and growth.

Don't miss any of these entertaining concerts. The shows are at 1:30 and 3:30 and series tickets are $15, available at the door or at: Penniesworth, Georgetown Yarn and Craft, The Parent/Child Centre and the Acton Library.

For more information call, 877-6140 or 877-5373.
