A Little Bit of HUMOR

Q: Where does Wolfman keep his car?

A: In the "barking" lot.

Q: What's the name of the famous Halloween building in New York City?

A: The "Vampire" State Building.

Q: Why is a turkey like a ghost?

A: Cause he's always a-gobblin'!

Q: What did the boy ghost say to the girl ghost?

A: You sure are boo-tiful.

Q: Why did the little ghost join the football team?

A: They needed a little team spirit.

Q: What is a vampire's favorite fruit?

A: Neck-tarines.

Q: Why does Frankenstein love good riddles?

A: Because they keep him in stitches.

1. For many years, the night before Halloween was known as "Mischief Night," owing to the belief that on this night ghosts and fairies roamed the countryside playing practical jokes on people. This was the basis for the "trick" part of the trick-or-treat custom.

2. The original jack-o'-lanterns were not pumpkins, but were hollowed-out turnips, potatoes and rutabagas.

3. Many men and women profess to be witches because of the actual meaning of the word witch. It means "wise one."

4. The popular idea that witches were burned is false. There is no record of witches being burned at any time in Salem or anywhere else in America.
