

Peewee Bruins win pair

Georgetown's Major Pee Wees ended their October rep hockey action with victories over a stubborn Streetsville and Ancaster hockey club on Oct. 26 and Oct. 28 respectively.

On Friday night, the Bodanis Bruins fought Streetsville to a scoreless first period at the Vic Johnson arena in Streetsville.

A goal by Brad Spears assisted by Jaime Bottomly and David Boere put the Georgetown team ahead 1-0. However, three unanswered goals by Streetsville found the local club trailing 3-1 early in the third period.

At the 11:27 mark, David Kotsos scored assisted by Gary McNeily and Kevin Lumb to narrow the Streetsville lead to 3-2. A solo goal by Fraser Thom equalized the score at three apiece at the nine minute mark. David Kotsos then scored his second goal of the game, assisted by David Kalbarski, to give Georgetown a 4-3 lead.

Streetsville evened the score at the five minute mark, only to see the hometown team seize the victory on a goal by David Boere with 36 seconds remaining. Boeres winning goal was assisted by David Kotsos. The team is to be commended on their fine effort, good positional play and determined checking.

On Sunday, the Bodanis Bruins hosted Ancaster and defeated the visiting team 5-2 at Alcott arena.

Georgetown opened the scoring at the nine second mark on a goal by Gary McNeily assisted by David Kalbarski. Jaime Bottomly put the Georgetown club ahead 2-0 before the period ended. Bottomly's goal was assisted by Scott Truman.

Ancaster narrowed the score to 2-1 early in the second period, but three unanswered goals by the Bodanis Bruins gave the local club a 5-1 lead when the second period ended. Two of the three goals were scored by Gary McNeily and gave him the hat trick for the day.

Brad Spears assisted on McNeily's second goal while Scott Lahey and Andrew Elinsky teamed up to assist on McNeily's third goal. A solo goal by Brad Spears rounded out the Georgetown scoring. David Pearson played a steady game in goal for Georgetown to further frustrate the Ancaster teams attack.

Curling Clinic

The Ontario Curling Association held a curling clinic at the North Halton Golf and Country Club on Sunday, demonstrating some of the game's techniques. Here, instructor Brad Burgess (far right)
