

Two big November darts events at Legion

Alex Tough Darts

Saturday, November 17 sees the Legion's Fred Gilmore Trophy tourney of members doubles. The tourney is sometimes well attended and sometimes not. It is always a friendly, yet serious affair and quite enjoyable.

On Nov. 25, at the Legion again, Darts Ontario hosts the first of the three leg entry into the provincials for Halton League members. Registration for mixed doubles closes at 11:00 a.m. and for the ladies and men's singles at 1:00 p.m. Dress code is in effect - dress pants, skirts with shirt/blouse, with collar, must be worn. Sport shoes are acceptable. Halton League's first tourney of the season at the Armory will be reported next week, being held Monday last.

George and Dragon #1 gave O'Tooles a good tussle in losing by two sets to the strong going visitors. Ken Gritten and Ed Paterson scored 180s, Terry Cesar knocked for two 140s, Jeff Henderson and Frank Fernandes one each. O'Tooles had a two point edge from the singles and held on to win.

Hollywood began the season brightly and visited Station House #2 (or is it Exchange #2? - team names keep changing!). Anyway, the home team came out on top by four setting the pattern with the singles, 6-2, and tying the doubles and teams. A good result. Rick Cammon and Brad Youmans scored 140, Gail Sheppard scored 133 and Darrell Weir 130.

Bruce Hope, Stan Rhynold and Greg Thomas each netted 140 and 132 came from Hank Van Gogh in the McGibbon #1/Station #1 matchup. The home team prevailed with a convincing eight point spread victory. Three of the early singles sets went to House and things looked bleak for only a short time as that was all for the away team. George and Dragon

#2 lost only two sets to O'Tooles #1 with a workmanlike win over stubborn opponents. Mark See dropped a singles to Mike Finn.

Brother Erwin with your scribe dropped a doubles point to Danny Drumm and Mike Sinnaeve. However, the same Sees scored the extra points. Erwin scored 180 and two 140s and Mark scored 140, as did Dan Fraser and Brian Ward.

Russ Hillier scored three 140s and support from Paul Kirby 180, and 140 from Hugh Smid as O'Tooles #3 defeated McGibbon #2 13-1. Sheila Hicks scored 140 twice. The ladies sole point came when Kelly McDonald took Kim Smid in the singles. Time Out took a four point win from George and Dragon #3 taking the lead in singles, tying doubles and winning both teams. Ted Nelson scored 180 and 140 for the visitors with 140 from Pete Conway and John Colter (2). Alison Colter and Joyce Marrows won the doubles over Ted Nelson and Dave Rutherford.

Copper Kettle #1 and #2 have the distinction of being the first sides to have a tied match, 7-7. How judicious, for the same establishment. #1, may be given the honours as Mike Creary and Graham Gove scored 140 and Rob Wilton scored 133.

Panthers are finding the going hard in the top flight in the Industrial League, taking a loss by the full 0-9 in their tussle with Gasketman Cutters. A clinical display in quiet merciless fashion by Cutters. Steeprock did not give Snowjacks an easy time even though losing 3-6, finishing being the cause. Bulldogs and Westenders fought all the way in a one point win for 'dogs and the same for High Rollers in beating Ensigns.

Mark See had four closes, one of 81, Rick Harden 140 and tons, Randy Hunt 140, Erin See two 140s. Al Gardiner opened three. Hugh Smid, 140, Paul Kirby 121 and tons from Ian McDonald and Jim Nicholson were answered by Joe Cairns 135, 121, and 140 from Ron Scarlett. Scribe had three opens and closes in a lucky night. Kirby had four opens and McDonald three. Jay Bishop opened 93 and Pete Robinson started four.

Brad Hale scored 140 and tons from Bishop and Dave Robinson. Sid Clark scored 106 and Dennis Thorogood 140 helped Derek Hardcastle and three opens. Roy Rudigr opened four and Al Murphy three in reply to hot Rollers. Dan Abercromby opened 96 and Terry Hancock 93, and both scored 140 with Hancock closing 99.

No major scoring took place in the Aces/Taxmen challenge as Aces ran out 7-2 winners. Independents and Firemen had a close encounter before Independents took the last set for the win. Bandits took the first set from Inter-County and that was all. Acadian Pools maintain their good form with a 7-2 win over Outlaws.

Dave Tomlinson opened three and Lloyd Westlake closed three. Jim Franks achieved both and Gord Bottoms was credited with 120 and ton. Rob Quinton scored 132, George O'Neil opened his first visit to the board with 140. George Powell opened 82 and finished one match, not bad as he has had to change throwing his throwing arm from right to left. He started six altogether. Tim Field opened with 98, scored 140 as did Dan (0). Mike Hope and Todd Axford scored tons and Cam Herman finished 63. Hope also opened four.
