Representatives from General Motors Canada presented the employees of the Georgetown division of Standard Products Limited with a plaque Tuesday in recognition of the employees excelling in the GM "Targets for Excellence" program. The GM program sets objectives for its suppliers in five manufacturing disciplines ranging from quality to management. The employees of SP in Georgetown at-
