

GDHS athletes of the week

Senior Rebel swim team member Jenny Williams and midget volleyball player Gavin Glaser were chosen as this week's GDHS Athletes of the Week for their contributions to school sports. Williams placed first in the 50 metre fly at the McMaster Invitational Swim Meet last week, beating her own best time in the process. She was also part of the mixed 200 metre freestyle relay team that placed second. Glaser, the team's middleman, dug down deep to help his team win their own tournament on Friday, beating St. Thomas Aquinas for the championship. (Herald photo)

No luck for Legion Novices as team loses three games

The Canadian Legion Branch 120 sponsored 'AAA' Minor Novices wouldn't have any luck at all if it weren't for all the bad luck they have been experiencing lately. The last four games proved that.

Going into their eighth game of the season, sporting a reasonable 3-4 record, the Hurricanes were expecting to even up their won/loss record with a home ice win over Richmond Hill at Georgetown Memorial Arena.

Unfortunately, luck wasn't with them as many good scoring chances were missed, and the visitors skated away with a 3-2 victory. Goaltender Garret Lauzon put in a strong effort for Halton turning aside 10 of 13 shots.

The Hurricane offence managed to direct 16 shots on their opponent's net, but only scored twice. Mike Austen and Joel Petkoff tallied for Halton, with assists going to Joshua Tataryn and Dylan Hardy respectively.

Hosting top rated Brampton at Milton's Thompson arena on Saturday, Nov. 3, the Minor

Novice Hurricanes once again had numerous good scoring chances go astray, outshooting the opposition by an 18-15 margin, but dropping a 5-3 decision. Goaltender Dylan Hardy turned aside 10 Brampton shots.

Joshua Tataryn netted two Hurricane goals, while Joel Petkoff added a third with an unassisted marker. Michael Austen assisted on both of the Tataryn goals and Brydon Butterworth was credited with one. The Minor Novice record now stood at 3-6 following two home ice setbacks.

The C.L. Branch 120 boys were on the road Sunday, Nov. 4, playing a return match in Brampton's backyard. The game started out miserably for Halton, as Brampton stormed to the attack, peppering goaltender Garret Lauzon with a barrage of shots and taking a commanding 4-0 lead 11 minutes into the game.

Then the tide turned and the Hurricanes took over the contest, outscoring their opponents by a 5-1 margin over the last two periods, while outshooting them

17-5 during their onslaught. But once again numerous good scoring chances were missed and the team settled for a 5-5 tie.

Joshua Tataryn led the offensive comeback netting a hat trick, with his third goal coming with only 18 seconds left in the game to secure the tie. Jarrett Konkle and Joel Petkoff added the other Hurricane markers, capping an exciting comeback.

Improving their record to 3-6-1, Halton moved on to play Burlington at Nelson arena last Tuesday. Hard luck followed them there too. A disallowed goal early in the first period set the Hurricanes back a stride, and Burlington moved out to a 3-1 lead after two periods.

But once again, the team fought back in the third period, outshooting their opposition 12-6, netting two goals to draw even.

Lightning struck with one second left on the clock, as Burlington scored on a partial breakaway after Halton had asserted tremendous pressure during the final two minutes.
