How To Write A Good Classified Ad

1. Start your ad with the merchandise you are selling. This makes it easier for the reader to locate your advertisement.
2. Always include the price of the item you are selling. Many readers in Classified will not respond to an ad which does not include a price.
3. Place yourself in the readers position. Ask what you would like to know about the merchandise you are selling. Include information such as brand name, colours and other specific descriptions in your ad and you will receive a quicker response from the reader.

NOTICE

The Herald will not be responsible for more than one insertion of a classified ad containing an error.
 "The advertiser agrees that the publisher shall not be liable for damages arising out of errors in advertisements beyond the amount paid for the space actually occupied by that portion of the advertisement in which the error occurred, whether such error is due to the negligence of its servants or otherwise and there shall be no liability for non-insertion of any advertisement beyond the amount paid for such advertisement.
 The publisher reserves the right to edit, revise, classify or reject any advertisement."

CARD OF THANKS

The family of the late Senator A. Norton would like to thank Dr. A. MacIntosh and Dr. A. Thompson and all the staff of Georgetown and District Memorial Hospital for their loving care, Phillip and his staff at J. S. Jones and Son Funeral Home for their expert help when we needed it, and the Rev. Carol Skidmore of St. Alban's Church for her comforting words. Also to all dad's friends and neighbours and all our friends and neighbours for their visits, tributes and cards. We really appreciate your thoughtfulness. Pauline and Bud Buckwald, Ross and Betty Norton, Terry and Sylvia Norton.

AMARELO, Marie - We wish to express our sincere thanks to our friends, neighbors and relatives for their sympathy and support at the time of our mother and grandmother's passing. Special thanks to our friends Murray and Wendy Wild for all their help. Thank you to Father Valeriate and Father Lima and Mr. Shoemaker. Thanks also to those for their generous flowers, cards and memorial donations. We will always remember your thoughtfulness. Manual and Maria, Pereira and Family.
