

1990 Santa Claus parade another success

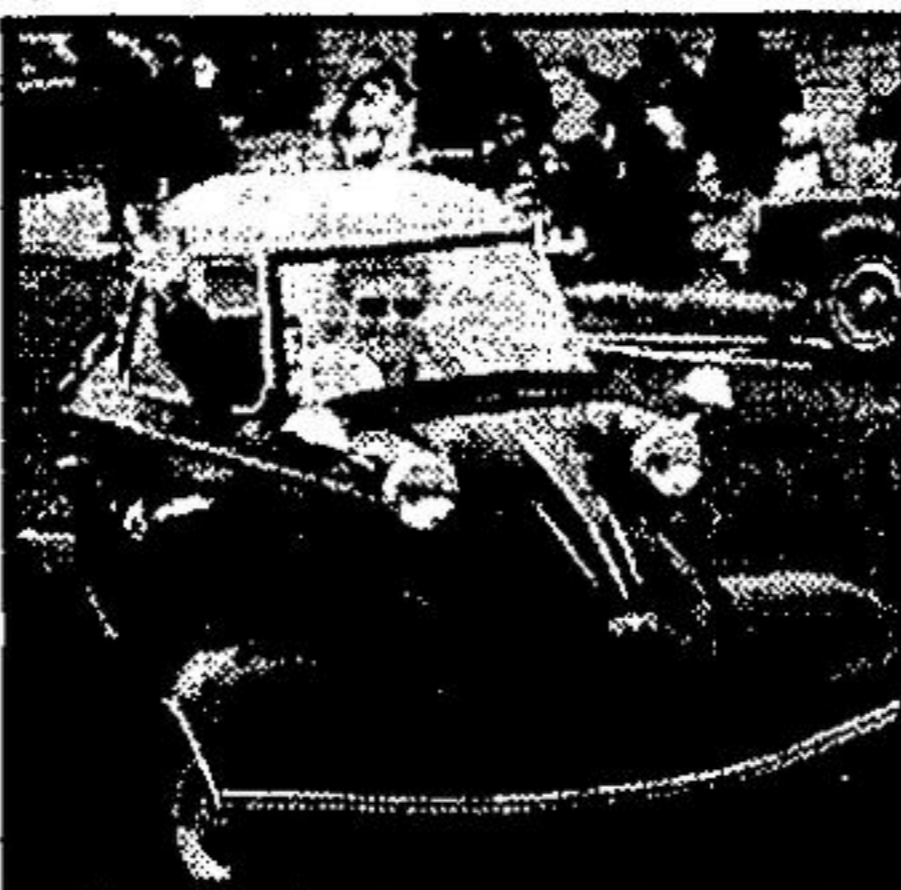

Georgetown Branch 120 Royal Canadian Legion-sponsored 756 Squadron Air Cadets impressed

onlookers with their smart appearance and snappy marching style at Saturday's Santa Claus Parade.

Despite the cold day, Lisa Bradbury and Tanya Piercey had smiles for everyone during Saturday's Santa Claus Parade. Actually, the pair were just clowning around.

Georgetown Lions Club member Bill Garbutt was a hit at Saturday's Santa Claus Parade with his one-seater red car.

Herald
Photos
by Lisa Boonstoppel-Pot

Georgetown Lions Club once again sponsored Saturday's Georgetown Santa Claus Parade, the 59th annual edition of the event. The Georgetown Lions Club Color Party was selected "Best Marching Group" and Bryan Dale and Derek Ezekiel carried the club's banner.

To the delight of onlookers at Saturday's Lions Club-sponsored Santa Claus Parade, Mickey and Minnie Mouse (Lynn Moreland and Christine Ezekiel) took time out from their cartoon capers to take part in the festivities.

The Acton Citizens Band provided lively and seasonal renditions for marchers of all ages during Saturday's Georgetown Santa Claus Parade.

Randy Masters thrilled onlookers Saturday afternoon at the Santa Claus Parade with his antics in his Dune Buggy sponsored by Discount Car Rental.

Every Santa Claus Parade needs drummers so the marchers can keep in step and Mathew Elk was "The Little Drummer Boy" in Saturday's Santa Claus Parade.