

Jaws leads industrial curling league despite tricky ice surface last weekend

Dunlop Insurance's Rockers are still chasing the high flying JAWS team for first place after this Thursday's play at North Halton on ice that was hard to read throughout the evening's action.

The Rockers claimed victory over Lopers' Swimmers with a 6-4 score, but had to rely on some mid-game luck and then a very difficult last shot missed a take-out attempt by the Swimmers' skip Ken McCormack to avoid a tie.

JAWS went up against Paul Barber's Challengers and trimmed the Varian based squad by a close 7-6 count. It was a tightly played contest in the early going. Then JAWS jumped out front with a three-pointer in the sixth end, and the Barber rink came up one point short in a valiant eighth end rally.

The Sign Shoppe Sliders looked good, taking the biggest jump in the standings from last week. They advanced six positions with their commanding 11-1 triumph over Dead Enders.

Tricky ice on this warm night came into play in two other close match-ups. The first of these ended in a 7-7 stand-off between La Guys and The Automatons, a game featuring (but not slowed down by) legal counsel on both sides. Deftly, Steve Foster was able to bring his Automatons back in the final end to eke out the stalemate.

The other close contest was a sweet 5-4 first of the season win by Ken Buck's Kendale Hackers crew over the tough Hog Liners. Lisa Buck, who made her season debut in this game, may be the charm that the Hackers have been looking for as they strive to move up in the league standings.

Minus regular skip Ken Irwin, but welcoming the play of second Glen Sproule for the first time this year, a seemingly limbered Work That Body squad grabbed a quick four point lead over The Senators after the first two ends, and never looked back as they won 7-4.

If it is true that the Fit-As-A-Fiddle team has begun pre-game calisthenic training under the tutelage of their sponsor Laurie Burns, other teams may need to do likewise to hold this team (last year's champs) at bay. (In a make-up contest held Sunday, they also bettered JAWS by a 12-4 tally.)

Peewee Bruins defeat Ancaster

Bodanis Bruins Major Peewees travelled to Ancaster on Saturday, Nov. 3 and defeated the tough local club 8-3 in a hard checking game.

David Kalbarski opened the scoring at the 6:47 mark of the first period assisted by Andrew Ellinsky. Twenty-two seconds later, Brad Spears gave the local club a 2-0 lead assisted by Gary McNiven.

Georgetown took a 3-0 lead before the period ended when David Kotsos scored on a play set up by David Kalbarski.

In the second period

The two most one-sided games of the week, both played at 6:45 p.m., featured The Norval Boys versus The Boxers, and Bill Smith Auto Wingnuts versus Scott Russell's Kendale Eight Enders. The Norval Boys played a controlled game, winning five of eight ends and finishing with a 12-4 score over The Boxers.

The Wingnuts were in trouble all night in a game which turned into a rout. Brad Smith couldn't get his team on track. The pumped up Kendale's dressed for 'Neon Night' a week early, came out blazing and unturned the Wingnuts 12-3.
