How To Write A Good Classified Ad

1. Start your ad with the merchandise you are selling. This makes it easier for the reader to locate your advertisement.
2. Always include the price of the item you are selling. Many readers in Classified will not respond to an ad which does not include a price.
3. Place yourself in the readers position. Ask what you would like to know about the merchandise you are selling. Include information such as brand name, colours and other specific descriptions in your ad and you will receive a quicker response from the reader.

The Herald will not be responsible for more than one insertion of a classified ad containing an error.

"The advertiser agrees that the publisher shall not be liable for damages arising out of errors in advertisements beyond the amount paid for the space actually occupied by that portion of the advertisement in which the error occurred, whether such error is due to the negligence of its servants or otherwise and there shall be no liability for non-insertion of any advertisement beyond the amount paid for such advertisement. The publisher reserves the right to edit, revise, classify or reject any advertisement."

CARD OF THANKS

ARNOLD - The family of the late Jo-Ann Arnold (nee Kemshead) wish to extend their sincere gratitude to neighbours, friends, relatives and the doctors and nurses at the Princess Margaret Hospital for their encouragement and support during Jo-Ann's treatment for leukemia. During our darkest hour, and the many kind acts and words expressed by everyone eased the pain. Special thanks to the Princess Margaret Hospital, Father Tom Layden of Toronto and Reverend Glyn Easson of Toronto and Reverend Carol Skidmore of Glen Williams for their kind help to the family in dealing with our sorrow. We thank everyone for their thoughtful donations, floral tributes, cards, calls and help during our period of immediate grief. Jo-Ann was always a good wife and mother and will be sorely missed.
 Alan, Jason, Jenifer and Julie Arnold.

The Family of the late Helena Hamilton would like to thank Drs. Panabaker and Macintosh and the staff of Georgetown and District Memorial Hospital for their loving care. J. S. Jones and Son Funeral Home for their expert help when we needed it and Father Dave Cote for his comforting words. Thanks also to all friends and neighbors for floral tributes, charitable donations, masses and cards. We really appreciate your thoughtfulness.
 The Hamilton Family
