

Paterson darts tourney aids Heart and Stroke group

Alex Tough Darts

Apologies open up this week to and from, I may add. Mispelt Brian McCorry's name the other week and his 'wee doo' - Julie - is in for recording a high score in the Tuesday night mixed league. It would not do to err twice in a row. Actually I could not read my own writing in this case.

Now then, most of readerland know that the column is a week behind in reporting the scandals of the week. Hence, a forgetful Dave Scutt is due me an apology for "missing Shirley's 180 and finish" - Dave got the week wrong.

Ah well, it all helps to know people read my efforts and helps the world go round. If the Iraq business keeps going, the world may well go up and not round.

Back to arrows, folks. George and Dragon no. 2 keep rolling along in first place on Mondays - a 12-2 win over fellow house team no. 1 doing the job.

Mark See shot 180. Lost the set for the only singles loss and no. 1 took the last team set in an uproarious best of three. Lots of fun in this match. See also scored 140 as did Ron Scarlett, (2), Dan Fraser and Brian Hicks.

Nearest challengers, O'Tooles no. 2 defeated Hollywood by the same score and remain 24 points adrift.

Third place in my book goes to McGibbon no. 1, tied with O'Tooles no. 3 on points, although having played a match less. Another 12-2 scoreline, for McGibbon at Copper Kettle no. 1.

Speaking of Harden, the young man gave top rated Mike Sweeney a fright in the later stages of Sunday's Darts Ontario round, in going down by 2-3, only losing on a 111 finish as Rick was left with a closing double for the match. Harden took third spot in the singles and many points towards the next round.

Time Out hold on to fifth place with a 9-5 win over Exchange no. 1. Singles were tied, thanks to Exchange being short of players, losing two to the dummy - non-players. Larry Vaery shot 140, Roger Vanderham 133 and 132 with Bill Taylor replying with 134.

O'Tooles no. 1 are in sixth place and they lost to O'Tooles no. 3 by 3-11. Some pretty steady darts were thrown all evening. Young Chris Scutt scored 135, just back from the youth Darts Ontario first round. Paul Kirby shot 140 twice as did Mike Sinnaeve with one from out of from Mike Pepper.

The ladies, McGibbon no. 2, took five from George and Dragon no. 3, four of them in singles. The upset did not last, however. The only high score came from Pat Pickering, 136. Finally, Exchange no. 2 took 14 from shorthanded Copper Kettle no. 2, who always seem to be short of players. Jon Brown and Gord Bottoms shot 140 each in this encounter.

On Wednesday at the Legion it was return to league play and first division leaders began where they left off, an 8-1 win over High Rollers. If Rollers had taken their chances the result would have been much closer.

Beau Beaumont showed good form with four starts, three closes and 140. Ron Scarlett doubled out three. Ed Koyoumjian opened 100.

Westenders and Gasketman Cutters, third and second respectively, stayed that way after Cutters won the last set for the odd game victory. A close fought match, going first one way then the other.

Dennis Thorogood opened 116, so did Brian Hicks. Thorogood scored 140 and Ray Ackroyd closed 120. Erwin and Mark See, with Randy Hunt scored a ton or more and Hunt closed 60. Rick Harden opened three.

Panthers recent run of mini success came to an end losing to Ensigns 3-6. Harry Bottoms and Roy Rudiger both began three, one closing 57 and the other closing 94. Paul Kavanagh scored 133 and Jim Carter 115, Kavanagh also opened three.

Bulldogs beat Steeprock by one, the last game being the one. Brad Hale popped 140 and finished 110. Tony Casarim, Jay Bishop and Dave Robinson scored over 100. Paul Kirby opened 120 and scored 140 with a 3-2 match. Hugh Smid scored 140 and Jim Nicholson scored 100 or more twice.

Acadian Pools made a move back to the winning track with 6-3 over Firemen. Tim Field had three closes and four opens. Mike Finn scored 140, 121 with support from Dan Fraser with a 112 open and 140. Ace Bailey scored 100 and Marty Claude closed on a bull.

Inter County defeated Taxmen by the same score. George O'Neill opened the first game with 106 and Bill McCartney scored 133. Roger Moore shot 120.

Aces won high with 7-2 over Outlaws, Hal Hills opened four and Lloyd Westlake finished three, Bill Hall shot 140 and Dean Hancock 141 and 120. Mike Hope opened five and Dean Janic scored 138. Bryan Turner scored 121, George Powell 117 in Bandits. 2-7 score with Independents.

Jan. 5 sees George and Dragon host the second annual Ed Paterson Sr. doubles tourney. Registration at 9:00 a.m. and play commences 10:00. Entry fee is $20 in aid of the Heart and Stroke Foundation. There is a championship and consolation round. Keep the date open ladies and gents.
