

Students offered unique rewarding experience

Through Interculture Canada, the country's leading international student exchange organization, high school students from coast to coast can enjoy the unique and rewarding adventure of studying abroad.

This non-profit organization specialized in international learning is presently concluding its Canada-wide search for students, aged 15-18, interested in meeting the challenge of living and studying in any of over 30 countries around the world.

"It's the education adventure of a lifetime," says an active volunteer from the organization. "It's an opportunity not to be missed. Not only do our students develop more self-confidence through the experience, but they also get a real and lasting taste of life in a completely different part of the world - a challenging education in itself."

The young people chosen to participate in this program will live with a host family and study in a local high school. Families have been carefully selected to host students and during their stay, students benefit from the support of a volunteer counselor.

The program's participation costs are equivalent to the sum parents normally spend on teenager in Canada. Financial assistance is also available.

The registration deadline for summer 1991 departures is December 21st. Students who like adventure and want to acquire new knowledge are urged to apply without delay.

Interculture Canada is a member of AFS Intercultural Programs, the world's largest network of international student exchange programs established in 1947 and now operating in 54 countries.

Full width covered verandah, trio of dormers and shuttered windows combine to create a nostalgic charm for this three bedroom home. Directly off the dramatic barrel vaulted foyer is a living room with adjoining formal dining room. Both the dining room and greenhouse breakfast bay are served by the centrally located gourmet kitchen. The U-shaped kitchen offers abundant counter and shelf space, pantry, and is open to the breakfast room. The large family room with warming fireplace is an ideal entertainment centre. Access from the two car garage opens to a main floor laundry/mudroom and connecting two piece powder room. This conveniently provides a direct route to the kitchen for unloading groceries. A secluded den serves as a multipurpose room and may be used as a guest room, office or sewing room. Ample natural light from the circle head window over the foyer illuminates the stairs to the bedrooms above. Double doors open to a luxurious master suite with walk-in wardrobe and sumptuous ensuite with shower and raised whirlpool spa resting in a bay window. The two additional bedrooms share a three-piece ensuite with soaking tub.
