

GDHS Athletes of the Week

Kevin Dyer and Janine Glaser, were chosen as this week's Georgetown District High School athletes of the week for their efforts as Rebel players. Dyer, a member of the senior basketball team, was recognized for his outstanding defensive efforts at the Brampton tournament on the weekend. Glaser, a senior swimmer, blew away Oakville's opposition during their meet at GDHS, winning the 100 metre individual medley. (Herald photo)

Halton Brick team solidly in second

The Canada Brick Halton Hurricanes Midget AAA squad won 2 of 3 in their week long home stand, solidifying their hold on second place in the Central Ontario loop.

The home stand opened against Oakville and things looked pretty bleak as Oakville opened a 4-1 first period lead. Canada Brick fought back and won 8-6.

The comeback was on in the second. Shawn Bourgeois made it 4-2 with an early goal assisted by Todd Mulley and Damien Zubien. Laing then scored on a blast from the point assisted by Trevor Elinesky.

Cox then won a draw to Wade Burrows in the Oakville end. Burrows passed to Dubien who found the mark to tie it at four. Oakville again took the lead on a power play goal. Ken Kosziwka tipped in a Muley blast with an assist going to Laing to again tie the game.

Coach Charlie Harman made a gutsy call with six seconds left in the second. While on a power play with a faceoff in the Oakville end, he pulled goalie Ryan Peddic and moved Zubien from the point to the slot.

It paid off as Sean Gustini took the draw and Elinesky got it to the front of the net. Zubien buried it from there to give Halton a 6-5 lead.

Oakville notted the score at six late in the third, with two minutes left, Dox got the game winner assisted by Laing. Patrick Hennenberry picked up an empty net goal to make the final score 8-6.

Canada Brick came up extremely flat in their next outing against Brampton, losing 4-1. Bourgeois scored the only goal on a slapshot after taking a pass from Zubien. Bad penalties contributed heavily to the loss.

The Hurricanes rebounded the next night as they came back to beat Chinguacousy 5-2.

Piazza backhanded in a rebound of a Laing point shot to give Canada Brick the lead. That they would not relinquish. In the third period Cox scored on a rebound of a Muley point shot with an assist also going to Hennenberry. Ching scored next, but Guistini led the game with an open net goal from Bourgeois and Robbie Crowe to make it 5-2. Peter Downs was solid in goal throughout the game.

Exhilarating!
