

2-1 Curling finish for juniors

A junior curling team from North Halton Golf and Country club skipped by Paul Burgess competed in the first Annual Chinguacousy Invitational Junior Bonspiel last Saturday.

The team, with Deanne Bayko playing vice, Sharon Shappcott at second and Robbie Wands at lead ended the Bonspiel with two wins and a loss.

In the first game against Darren Harkness of the host Chinguacousy club, the team played well in the early ends against the more experienced Harkness rink. However, a steal of three points in the third end allowed the Harkness rink to take command and they went on to a 10-2 victory.

In the second game against Darren Barreca of Fr. Goetz Secondary School, the team got off to a good start with Sharon Shappcott making several key shots which allowed the Burgess rink to come away with a 6-2 victory.

The final game against the Johnalee Fraser Rink of Chinguacousy saw Robbie Wands and Deanne make several excellent shots to put the Halton rink ahead 6-2 after six ends.

However, the Fraser rink stole two points in the seventh end to narrow the score to 6-4. In the final end, skip Burgess drew his last rock into the eight foot circle against three Fraser rocks to preserve a narrow 6-5 victory.

In the closest to the button contest, Robbie Wands went to a tie-breaker before being eliminated.

Future Bonspiels for the Junior curlers include trips to Milton, London and Plattsville. The Juniors will be hosting a Bonspiel in February and a Senior-Junior Bonspiel in March.

Minor Novice

No Waterford wins

By BEVERLEY BIGGS
Herald Special

The Georgetown AA Minor Novices were recently at the Waterford Novice Rep Tournament. The boys played Dunville, Alliston and Flamborough, but managed no wins.

Georgetown managed one goal by Todd Kerwin in the Dunville game, but the games against Alliston and Flamborough were scoreless. The goalies, Simon Deely and Stephan Paulin are to be commended for their great saves against some powerful teams.

All that hard work at Waterford paid off. The record this week stands at a tie, a win and a loss.

Last Monday night, Georgetown played Milton to a 3-3 tie. The goals scored were by Todd Kerwin, assisted by Ryan Inglis; Greg Bidwell, assisted by Andrew Lefebvre; and Matt Walanga, assisted by Peter Veltman.

On Saturday, the minor novices played Oakville. The team has played Oakville twice before and lost both times, but they pulled together and won 2-0 - a shutout for the goalies. Peter Veltman got the first goal assisted by Todd Kerwin. Todd got the second goal assisted by Greg Bidwell.

On Sunday, the boys lost against Brampton, 2-0. For two and a half periods, there was no score before Brampton got their first goal.

Lumber Novices lose

The Georgetown Major Novice Beaver Lumber AA hockey club fell to defeat to the Stoney Creek Warriors, 4-2, on Nov. 29 at Memorial Arena.

The first period saw Matt Hotham score a fine goal at the 3:38 mark. Dan Smith and Jay Hayes got the puck to Hotham at the Stoney Creek blue line. Hotham brought the crowd to their feet by stick handling from the blue line, in through three Stoney Creek players, to beat the goaltender high on the glove side.

Tyler Pearce played shutout goal to keep the score at 1-0 at the end of the first period.

Stoney Creek got two quick unanswered goals midway through the second period to take a 2-1 lead. The second goal saw Pearce catch the puck in his glove, but the puck and glove were clearly over the goal line. Stoney Creek continued to apply pressure and forced Ryan Carter to make two brilliant saves to bring the 2nd period to an end at 2-1.

Stoney Creek came back on a power play to increase their lead to 3-1 on a breakaway. Georgetown rallied at the 5:56 mark with Trevor Cash setting up Jamie Laroque on an excellent two way pass play. Laroque shot high on the glove side for a great goal. Georgetown now trailed 3-2.

Stoney Creek, not to be denied, came back at the 5:06 mark with a deflected shot from the right side to put the game on ice.

Georgetown Figure Skating Club members took home two golds and a pair of silvers from the Keswick Invitational Skate, held Nov. 10 and 11.

Juvenile ladies skater Rose-Marie Gimeno placed first in flight and third in the final and compulsory moves, while Danielle Dembie, also a juvenile, won first place honors in compulsory moves.

Tara Hart, another juvenile skater, earned a fifth place spot in compulsory moves and seventh in flight. Brooke Remenda placed fourth in compulsory moves and eighth in flight.

The organization held its annual club competition Wednesday at Alcott Arena, though complete results were unavailable at press time.
