Salvation Army drive

Georgetown Toyota managers (left to right), Graham Dearsley and Carmen Widdess want YOU! to help fill this Toyota 4x4 Runner with non-perishable food between now and Dec. 21. The items will then be donated to the Acton Salvation Army.

Toyota dealers in the Greater Toronto and Hamilton areas are collecting food stuff for donation to the area Salvation Army as part of their first annual Toyota Care Drive. (Herald photo)

R.I.D.E. program update

Halton Regional Police stopped 13,698 motorists on Halton roads during the first week of the R.I.D.E. program, Dec. 1-8 and of that total six charges of impaired driving were laid, according to a press release.

A break down of the number of motorists stopped in each municipality in the Region was unavailable from the police department.

The department's Media Relations Officer, Sergeant Carey Smith, said of the vehicles stopped, 86 drivers were given a roadside breathalyzer test, 24 had their drivers licence suspended, 36 were charged with other driving related offences and 199 were issued warnings concerning the physical condition of their vehicles.

The R.I.D.E. program ends Jan. 1.
