Harrison new Board Chairperson

Halton Board of Education Trustee, Bill Harrison of Milton, was named the board's 1991 Chairperson Thursday replacing outgoing chair Pat Hillhouse, of Oakville.

Mr. Harrison said in an interview Monday his goals for the board are much the same as those of the other trustees. "Most of the trustees share the same philosophy," said Mr. Harrison. He suspects the board will continue to support the majority, if not all, of the board's long range programs such as the five year computer project.

"There will be no great shifts," he said.

Although he doesn't think the board is unreceptive to public input, it's a perception shared by a lot of the public, he said. "The board must continue to work on correcting this perception," said Mr. Harrison.

Burlington School trustee Dave Coons was named the 1991 vice-chairperson replacing Milton Trustee Bob Clark.

Police Act charge

On November 15, 1990 a complaint was received from a 14-year-old male person. The complaint was against a Halton Regional Police Officer who allegedly struck the young person while he was in the police cells at the police station, 1229 White Oaks Blvd., Oakville, on Wednesday, July 18, 1990.

Level 1 has been laid against Constable Patrick Wood, age 43, an officer assigned to the Uniform Patrol at 20 Division, Oakville. He is being summonsed to appear in Oakville Provincial Court on January 15, 1991.

Charges under the Police Act of Ontario are pending. Constable Wood, who has been a police officer for 18 years, is not under suspension and remains working in the Uniform Patrol.

As a result of an internal investigation a charge of Assault,
