British farce at John Elliott

By MAUREEN BURGOYNE
Herald Special

Will you be looking for an inexpensive way to spend an evening after the rush and bustle of the Festive Season? Does the idea of relaxing at the John Elliott Theatre, and being entertained by a hilarious, laugh-a-minute, British farce appeal to you? Then look no further.

MB Promotions is bringing the very successful farce "Run For Your Wife," by Ray Cooney, to the local theatre, with performances on January 10-12, and January 16-18, 1991.

This presentation by Caprius Productions, has just finished a six-week run in Mississauga. Based on the rave reviews and excellent houses enjoyed for that run, residents of the Georgetown area will be treated to a theatrical winner with this super fast-paced comedy.

Two local actors feature in this production. Andrew Finnigan, who works in Georgetown, plays the lead role. Although Mr. Finnigan has many years of experience in the theatre, this is the first time he has had the pleasure of playing the John Elliott Theatre. Also featured in this production is local resident, Michael Burgoyne.

As with many British farces, "Run For Your Wife" relies on double meanings and rapid fire one-liners to sew up the laughs which abound in this play. Well known, also, to local theatre-goers, is Alfie Matthews, who's professional approach and novel direction have made this a production which should not be missed.

Tickets are available at $8 each, and can be ordered from Oxbow Books on Main Street in Georgetown, or can be reserved by telephone by calling 877-5831. Tickets would make an excellent present for the theatre lover at this Christmas season.

Centennial Middle School staged its Christmas production, the Charles Dickens Classic 'A Christmas Carol' last week at the John Elliott Theatre in Georgetown to appreciative audiences at all three performances. Scrooge and the Ghost of Christmas Present (background) were played by Mark Peterson and Sabrina Bassett, respectively. In foreground, are students depicting the Cratchit family including, left row, front to back; Michael Crawford, Tiny Tim; Michael Cairns, Bob Cratchit; Nicole Mands, Emily Cratchit, and Steve Smith, Peter Cratchit. Right row, front to back; Lee McKeon, Kathy Cratchit; Jenny Harlow, Ethel Cratchit and Aynsley Saxe, Sarah Cratchit. (Herald photo)
