

Halton Major Peewees win regional tourney

The Halton Hurricane AAA Major Peewees, together only three months, have become the Regional AAA Silver Stick Champions. This is their second championship in four tournaments.

In true teamwork fashion, each forward line was responsible for at least one game-winning goal, making the Hurricanes virtually unstoppable as they racked up 17 goals, while the stingy defence allowed only four goals the entire weekend.

North York Canadiens 3,
Halton Hurricanes 3

The Hurricanes had a 3-0 lead by the 7:24 mark of the second, but with 2:47 left in the game, the Canadiens started a come-back which would see them tie the game with four seconds left on the board.

Scoring for Halton were Marc Boucher, Jeff Haydar, and Sandy Davidson. Assists went to Bobby Wilson with two, and Daryl Loader with a single.

Halton Hurricanes 1,
Brampton 0

Brampton continued their hack and whack routine from regular league play into this tournament resulting with Brampton's coach being ejected during the first period with a gross misconduct.

Goaltender Kevin Wilson recorded his first shutout in a pivotal game. Two power play lines were utilized resulting in many scoring chances.

Halton's only goal scored by Scott Bertoli on a breakaway pass from wingers Haydar and Loader sealed the win.

Halton Hurricanes 9,
Mississauga Terriers 0

Halton was overpowering on Sunday morning, allowing only four shots (three during penalty killing) on netminder Steve Heinz in the entire game. This was Heinz's third shutout.

Loader and Bertoli led with two goals and four assists each, while linemate Haydar chalked up two

Minor Atom machines win

By WENDI GOODHEW
Herald Special

Coaches Dave Krause, John Martin and Doc Richardson received their Christmas present early when the minor atom Black Machines reved up Saturday and drove on to beat Chinguacousy 2-0.

Black Machine's goalie Chris Hall was very steady this game, making several saves. The other goalie Joey Barger was busy on the bench handing out support to his teammates.

Dan Cabral fired the first goal by the Chinguacousy goalie early in the game from a pass from Judd Richardson. Cabral was fired up for this game and Richardson also made some good plays.

Jeff Bahr whizzed the second goal in to give Georgetown a bigger lead. Mike Krause was all hustle and did some great backchecking. Farm team player Ryan Booth proved he's going to be around a long time, playing great heads-up hockey and was right in the thick of things.

With 2 players ill the team was left with three defencemen. Nathan Martin played tough at the blueline stopping most players who came at him. Jeff Telford threw up roadblocks and managed to get a couple of shots on net. Joey Goodhew made a few rushes and managed to get back to cover his man.

Atom House League Varian crunches Chateau 12-2

Dec. 8 saw three games of Atom House League action take place at Memorial Arena.

In the first game, Varian Industries beat an under-strength Chateau Restaurant team by a score of 12-2. Jess Ward (five goals), Mike Kitchen (four goals), and Sam Southworth (1 goal, 4 assists) led the Varian attack.

Other Varian goals were by Richard Cunningham (2 goals), while Mike Layman, Matt McMullen, Adam Disenza, Mark Harlow and Cunningham provided assists. Goalie Clint Eggenberger had a good game.

Chateau's Shawn Morden scored two fine solo goals, while Craig Anderson and Darren Mansfield had strong games in a losing cause.

The first game of the morning saw A and S Engraving jump to an early 5-0 lead on goals by Dirk McKee, Jason McCarthy, Chris Baker, Jason Thompson and Thomas Arnold.

MVP Distributors started off slowly but picked up the pace in the third period on goals from Jesse Thibodeau, Nick Johnston and Brian Normore. A and S replied with goals from McKee and Thompson to finish with a 7-3 victory.

Assists came from Geoff Quinn for A and S and Chris Sperduti, Paul Farmer and Jason Waterworth for MVP. Isaac Ferguson and Glen Wood played well for MVP.

Game two was a tight, hard-fought cliff-hanger between the only two undefeated squads, Dave's Service Centre and Tim Horton's.

Horton's Peter Finlay set up Josh Malinosky to open the scoring, while Dave's Shaun Dunlop countered with a solo rush, ending with a powerful wrist shot past a sprawling Horton's goalie, Dylan Lee.

Lee and Dave's Mike Kelly, held the score even at 1-1 until 18 seconds from the end, when John Howell put Horton's up 2-1 on a pass from Malinosky.

All players gave a big effort, but Kelly was especially noteworthy as he repeatedly frustrated a swarming Dave's offence with a series of excellent saves. Players and fans look forward to Dec. 29, when these well-matched teams meet again.

GDHS athletes of the week
