Punchless Peewee power play

Lost power play opportunities hurt the Halton Hurricanes Major Peewees at the 20th Annual International Hockey Tournament held in Oshawa Nov. 30-Dec. 2.

Halton consistently doubled the opponent's power play chances but were unable to capitalize as they won one, tied one and lost one game.

Twelve teams competed, with the winner of each of the three divisions plus the fourth best team advancing. Each game had one MVP award, with Halton winning two of three possible awards.

Halton Hurricanes 2, Toronto Red Wings 2

Played Nov. 30 at 9:30 a.m., this game pitted the second place teams in both the MTHL AAA and Central AAA leagues.

Halton lacked the teamwork necessary in the first two periods to take advantage of numerous powerplay opportunities. Phillip Sanderson's goal scored at 1:36 of the first period held as Halton's lone marker for almost the entire game, as they trailed 2-1.

A flood between second and third gave coach Bert Bertoli the opportunity to change things around. The fans had given up hope as the play was whistled down twice in the game's last fifteen seconds.

With scant seconds remaining Daryl Wader shot the puck at the Red Wing goalie from the corner. The puck took a funny turn, hit the goalie and bounced in.

Game MVP went to Halton's goalie Kevin Wilson who was spectacular in net, stopping 17 difficult shots. Wilson's heroics were assisted by the solid checking of Tim Diardichuk and Mark McPhail.

Halton Hurricanes 7, Nepean Raiders 0

Halton's goalie Steve Heinz played two games in this tournament. In the first two periods, he had to stay sharp with few shots on net, while shutting out an aggressive Raider team in the third for his second shutout of the season.

The Hurricanes made no mistake in using their power play opportunities with four power play markers. Scoring were Paul Sandifer, Bobby Wilson, Scott Bertoli and Marc Boucher.

Iain Macintosh netted the game winner with the remaining goals credited to Sandifer and Bertoli. Sanderson, Boucher, Crawford, Loader and Haydar assisted.

Chicago Young Americans 4, Halton Hurricanes 2

On Saturday, the Hurricanes drove back to Oshawa for an early 8:00 a.m. game, only to find the Red Wings out of the tournament courtesy of Chicago by a score of 4-1.

Down 3-0 early in the third, Halton's power play line came on the ice determined to score. A quick pass from Loader to the point - a blast from Kuhn's stick and Bertoli's tip started a comeback at 14:34.

With a two man advantage, Halton narrowed the gap to 3-2 at the 7:00 mark as Sanderson popped one in from Loader and Haydar. Less than two minutes later a short handed marker for Chicago sealed Halton's fate.

Goal Line - The Hurricanes have the week off, then head to Chinguacousy December 7-9 for the Silver Stick qualifier where they will face off against the North York Canadiens on Saturday morning at 10:30 a.m.
