Heaton Council representative on Tourism Committee

Town of Halton Hills Councillor Robert Heaton is the new Council representative appointed to the Halton Hills Tourism Committee. This was announced at the meeting the committee held Dec. 12, the last meeting of the year. Halton Region has been asked to take over the Burlington Visitor and Convention Bureau's funding as of Jan. 1st. This is because Burlington's Mayor, Roly Bird, has not allotted finances for the Bureau for the new year, as he feels it is a regional responsibility. This request will be taken up by the Regional Administration and Finance Committee on Jan. 9th. Recently, a new parking lot was put in at the Burlington Bureau. Parking fees will be charged in the new year, although visitors will be allowed one hour of free parking. The bureau is also now selling 1991 memberships. In April, a new visitor brochure will be published along with a newly approved slogan. This slogan will be used in the marketing of souvenirs.

The Halton Hills Tourism Committee also discussed the necessity of reviving the Committee's mandate so that those new to its membership will be certain of its objectives. The meetings for this committee will be listed in the Community Service Bulletins in the Herald.

A seminar has also been set for Feb. 12 by the Committee at Trinity Church in Acton for small businesses who want to put together a brochure for Tourism. The first meeting in the new year for the Halton Hills Tourism Committee will be held on Jan. 9, 1991 at Jack Tanner's Table in Acton.

This three bedroom, split entry design is ideal for a gently sloping lot which allows for a spacious daylight basement. (Design can easily accommodate a flat lot). The covered deck wraps the home and capitalizes on the view to the rear of the lot. Wide sliding glass doors and oversized windows throughout the home capture the panoramic view and maximize on the natural light. The design revolves around a hexagonal kitchen. The spacious and abundant counters make meal preparation an ease. The open plan living and dining room share a dominant, masonry fireplace. The centrally positioned fireplace optimizes furniture arrangement without obstructing the view.

The master bedroom features a walk-through dressing room with roomy closets and a three-piece ensuite with soaking tub. The two additional bedrooms share a main bathroom. The unfinished lower level provides 1,440 square feet for future development. This area is well suited for extra bedrooms or family room. To accommodate a narrower lot the home may be positioned rectangularly from a frontage of 48 feet. The finished floor area of this unique home is 1,530 square feet.
