Georgetown Bowl

SENIORS

The Christmas spirit hit the Senior league as they had a visit from a special Christmas guest and lots of food, drinks, and gifts to boot!

Along with this merriment came a lot of high scores. Leading the way was Brian Bell, with a 808(358) triple. Way to go Brian, you caught the top average spot.

Not far behind were David Ridley and Tonya Morris with a 779(352) and 770(306) respectively.

Rounding out the top spots were: Eddie Doyle 682(251), Lorrie Prevost 624(254), Mark Prevost 616(228), Robert Harrison 610(243), and Joe Robichaud 609(228).

Special thanks to Rose Radyk and the staff of the bowling alley for the special treats that they gave us on Thursday.

Good luck to our two teams who were off to the Boxing Day Bonanza on December 26th in Hamilton. Drive safely and show them your stuff.

Reminder to all bowlers that there was bowling on Dec. 27 at the regular time and if they were unable to bowl off, to call the alley to find out the special Christmas hours.

Cross country skiing begins

Cross-country skiers in the Metro Region can choose from a variety of trails just next door. The Metropolitan Toronto and Region Conservation Authority offers skiing at three conservation areas and the Kortright Centre.

Albion Hills Conservation Area, on Highway 50, eight kilometres north of Bolton, offers track set beginner, intermediate and expert level trails, with ski rentals, a heated chalet and a ski patrol.

Palgrave Forest and Wildlife Area, two kilometres north of Albion Hills on Highway 50, offers track set intermediate and expert level trails, with a ski patrol on weekends only.

Bruce's Mill Conservation Area, on Stouffville Road, three kilometres east of Highway 404, offers track set beginner and intermediate level trails, ski rentals, a heated chalet, a ski patrol and outdoor skating.

Winter activities take place as conditions allow. Albion Hills, Palgrave and Bruce's Mill are open daily through the winter from 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Trail fees are $6 for adults, $2 for children, and $14 for families.

The Kortright Centre is on Pine Valley Drive, south of Major Mackenzie Drive, west of Highway 400. It offers beginner and intermediate trails, but the trails are not groomed. Kortright is open 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. General admission fees for 1991 are adults $4, seniors and children $2 and pre-schoolers free.

Other winter activities in the Metro Region include husky dog races at Cold Creek Conservation Area on Concession 11, three kilometres north of King Road, midway between Bolton and Nobleton.

Races are scheduled for Jan. 12, 26 and 27 and Feb. 2, 3, 9 and 24. The starting time is 12 noon. There are a variety of winter activities at Heart Lake Conservation Area in Brampton, which include skating and tobogganing.

Per person general admission fees at Cold Creek and Heart Lake are adults $2, seniors $1.50, children $1 and pre-schoolers free.

Halton Peewees win

On Dec. 8, Halton Hurricanes AAA Minor Peewees celebrated the halfway point in their 36 game schedule with a victory.

Hosting the Hamilton Wings at Alcott Arena and coming off a big win over Burlington on Thursday evening, the Hurricanes won 5-1, extending their unbeaten streak to eight (7 wins and 1 tie) and improving their season record to 11-4-3.

Hamilton opened the scoring at 8:47 of the first when Justin Davis took a Jamie Walker pass through traffic and stuffed it into the net.

At 5:16 of the period, Hamilton picked up the equalizer on the power play. This turned out to be the only goal given up by Hurricane goaltender Jeff Langille who was playing in his third consecutive game, as pipemate Jim Leworthy is still down with bronchitis.

With 3:11 left, Darin Finlayson banged home Halton's second marker, set up by Peter Mashinter and Todd Miller.

Through the early going in the second period, the Hurricane defence took control, playing man to man at every opportunity and working the boards with enthusiasm.

Miller picked up his second of the afternoon at 9:13 of the period, taking a short feed from Mashinter and sliding it under the Hamilton netminder.

It was not until 6:04 of the final frame that Miller combined with Curtis Carr to score Halton's fifth goal and pick up his hat trick.
