Free skating enjoyable

CRIME STOPPERS

Halton Regional Police and Crime Stoppers in Burlington are seeking help in identifying a lone male who held up a travel agency in the city on Christmas Eve.

At 3:40 p.m., December 24, 1990, a male person entered Intra Travel, 3350 Fairview Street, and enquired about traveller's cheques. The lone female clerk on duty went to the rear of the office where the cheques are kept. She was followed by the lone bandit who produced a small black handgun and ordered the victim to enter a small side office.

The victim had duct tape placed over her eyes and mouth and was secured to a chair. The bandit searched the business premise and left with a large quantity of American Express cheques, mainly in U.S. funds.

The culprit is described as male, white, 50 years of age, 5'6", stocky build, grey hair, clean shaven. He spoke with a heavy European accent and was wearing a ¾ length grey jacket, a grey fedora hat and carried a light grey briefcase with grey duct tape along its sides.

If you have any information that leads to an arrest in this or any other case you may be eligible for a cash reward. You need not give your name and your call will be treated with complete anonymity. Please call 1-800-668-5151.
