

Neighbor remembered

By KAY WILSON

Older residents in the Hornby area will be sad to know of the death of Vera (Bussell) Martin, who passed away at the Royal Victoria Hospital in Barrie on December 27, 1990.

Beloved wife of Lloyd, loving mother of Barry and his wife Lynne, and the late Glen. Dear grandmother of Louise, Darryl and Michael. Predeceased by her brother Gary Bussell. Funeral service was held at the McKelvey Funeral Home, Barrie, on Sat., Dec. 29. Interment was in St. Paul's Anglican Cemetery, Innisfil.

Vera was born and raised on the Bussell farm at the 401 and Trafalgar Road at Hornby. Following business college, she took up accounting, until the time of her marriage to Lloyd Martin. After her boys were in school, she continued office work until she and her husband retired to Stroud for several years, and later to Barrie. The sudden death of their son, Glen, of an aneurism, survived by his wife and son Michael, was a loss she found hard to accept. Ill health of late years had kept Vera confined to a wheel chair. However, with all her problems, she still had that great sense of humor, that endeared her to her many friends and relations. Sincere sympathy is extended to her husband and family.
