Credit Valley Artisans schedule registration day at Cedarvale

The Credit Valley Artisans will be on hand at the Cedarvale Cottage in Cedarvale Park, Georgetown, to take in-person registrations for their winter slate of craft courses during the hours of 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon on Saturday, January 19, 1991. These courses have a limited enrolment and the courses are filled on a first come first served basis. Many of the courses are quite popular so interested persons should make sure they register early to avoid disappointment.

The courses lined up for this winter session include those crafts which relate to the four guilds of the Credit Valley Artisans - stained glass, pottery, weaving and painting. Also included are courses for the wood carving of birds, spinning and embroidery.

There are also two courses designed specifically for children aged 7 to 10 years. Last Winter and in the Fall 1990 sessions the Artisans ran very successful children's courses introducing them to the skills of our four guilds. The participation was so enthusiastic from the children and their parents that we felt obliged to offer two courses to give the children an extended exposure to pottery over three week-ends and to tapestry weaving over the two week-ends.

Those persons who are unable to attend the in-person registration can do so by mail. Information of the courses being offered can be obtained by phoning the registrar - Frank J. Anthony at (416) 877-5856 after 6:00 p.m. Also flyers and registration forms will be available for pick up at both the libraries in Halton Hills as well as the Town's Parks and Recreation Department.

Optimist Club planning 15th Annual Bang-O-Rama

The Optimist Club of Georgetown had its first planning meeting for the 15th Annual Bang-O-Rama, the club's main contribution to the citizens of the area.

Among the events discussed were: demolition derby, truck and tractor pulls, field events for youth, games for Chicken Club, pony rides, pet fam, predator animal show, world champ rope skippers and many other ideas.

Since this event is for the community, any ideas the community might have are welcome by the Optimists.

If you have any ideas call Sandy Booth at 877-4569 or Danny Edwards at 877-6457 or pass them on to any Optimist member.

Winter Carnival

Georgetown District High School students (left to right) Heather Cunningham, a.k.a. Captain Snow, and Scott Hamilton, a.k.a. Captain Snow Jr., needed all their super strength to organize the Park Public School Winter Carnival last Friday. Park students participated in several events including Frozen Tag and the Slippery Snowy Sack Race. Heather and Scott organized the carnival as part of their Grade 13 OCA physical education class.
