Major Novice

Beaver Lumber loses 3-2 to Burlington Powerlines

Georgetown Beaver Lumber AA Major Novices lost 3-2 to Burlington A and L Powerlines on Jan. 3 at Nelson Arena in Burlington, allowing the home team to score with six seconds left on the clock.

Jay Campbell opened the scoring for Georgetown at 8:32 by taking a pass from Brian Studdard, stickhandling through four Burlington players, deking the goaltender and scoring into an open net.

Ryan Bobor made it 2-0 for Georgetown at the 6:53 mark with an excellent rush, finding the five hole open for an unassisted goal. The first period ended 2-0 for Georgetown.

The second period was highlighted by Tyler Pearce's shutout goaltending, Georgetown's missed scoring opportunities by Joshua Travers, Daniel Smith, Jay Campbell and Brent McClung and Burlington capitalizing on a scramble play to bring the score to 2-1 at the end of the period.

The third saw Burlington tie the game at the 9:35 mark on a deflection shot from the blue line that eluded Ryan Carter.

Former Georgetown resident Chris Day continued to apply pressure for Burlington as they found their second wind and were pressing hard for the go-ahead goal.

Burlington called for a stick measurement on Ryan Bobor's stick to no avail and were penalized two minutes for delay of game at the 8:11 mark.

Ellis, McClung, Campbell, Hayes and Bobor all had opportunities to score for Georgetown in the dying seconds of the game but were foiled by Burlington.

With only six seconds left, Burlington scored to win the game 3-2.

Notable Georgetown contributors included Trevor Cash, Derrick Elliot, Jamie Larocque and Roddy Heinz.

Beaver Lumber AA Major Novices played in the East Gwillimbury Novice Hockey Tournament Jan. 5-6 at the Sharon Arena. The club managed two victories and one loss, finishing second in their division to the host club.

The first game saw Georgetown defeat Stouffville 5-0. Ryan Bobor opened the scoring unassisted at the 7:47 mark with an end to end rush and a great shot high on the stick side. The first period ended 1-0.

The second period saw Brent McClung score from the blueline, assisted by Dan Smith and Joshua Travers at the 8:34 mark.

Jay Campbell pounced on a rebound that Dan Smith made possible on a shorthanded breakaway at the 5:41 mark. Campbell had a wide open net and made no mistake. The period ended 3-0 for Georgetown.

The third period saw Tyler Pearce make a brilliant glove save at the 9:45 mark to ensure a shutout performance. Joshua Travers made it 4-0 at the 2:17 mark, assisted by Dan Smith.

Matt Hotham closed out the scoring at the 41 second mark, assisted by Scott Ellis. Final score Georgetown 5, Stouffville 0.

The second game of the tournament found Georgetown pitted against the host club of East Gwillimbury.

The first period saw Ryan Bobor with two shots from the blueline as Georgetown pressed hard to find the net. Jay Campbell stickhandled through three players only to have his efforts terminated by a stingy goaltender. The period ended 0-0.

The second period found Roddy Heinz turned away at the 6:46 mark. At the 18 second mark, East Gwillimbury scored on a rebound after Ryan Carter had made the initial save. The second period ended 1-0.

The third period saw Georgetown apply good pressure to find the equalizer with Dan Smith, Math Hotham and Jay Campbell all forcing good saves by the East Gwillimbury goaltender.

East Gwillimbury finally put the game on ice with an unanswered goal at the 4:45 mark.

Notable Georgetown contributors included Jay Hayes, Joshua Travers, Derrick Elliot, Trevor Cash, Scott Ellis and Jamie Larocque.

The final game found Georgetown playing against the Newmarket club. The final score was 4-2 in Georgetown's favor.

Tyler Pearce made three first class saves in the first period to keep the score tied at 0-0. Matt Hotham scored an unassisted goal at the 7:55 mark as he stickhandled and carried the puck from Georgetown's blueline.

Newmarket tied the score, at 1-1 at the :18 second mark of the second period on a deflected shot from the point.

The third period saw Georgetown score three consecutive goals to ice the victory.

Brent McClung scored unassisted the 9:06 mark. Scott Ellis got his first at 7:54 assisted by Jay Campbell. Matt Hotham assisted by Scott Ellis at the 4:32 mark. Newmarket closed out the scoring at the 38 second mark to end the game at 4-2.

Major Peewees

Bodanis Bruins tie, lose and win

Georgetown Bodanis Bruins Major Peewees split their games with Burlington and Milton in recent hockey action.

On Nov. 26, Georgetown travelled to Burlington and played a strong opponent. Burlington jumped into a 3-0 lead in the first period before Scott Lahey, assisted by Scott Truman put Georgetown on the scoreboard.

Burlington responded with three goals of their own before David Kotsos, assisted by Brad Spears, scored Georgetown's second goal. The game ended with Burlington winning 6-2.

In Alcott Arena Dec. 2, Georgetown fans were treated to an exciting game with their traditional rivals, Milton. The major portion of Georgetown's scoring occurred in the dying seconds of periods one and three.

Milton opened the scoring at the 6:56 mark of the first period, only to find themselves trailing 2-1 at the end of the first period after Georgetown scored two quick goals.

With only 54 seconds remaining in the first period, Wes Burke tied the score at 1-1, assisted by Brad Spears. David Kotsos then put the Bodanis club ahead 2-1 with only two seconds remaining. Kotsos' goal was assisted by Scott Lahey and Andrew Elinsky.

Both teams played scoreless hockey in the second period, but the temp changed in the final period of action. With only 41 seconds gone in the third period, Milton evened the score at 2-2. Andrew Elinsky then gave Georgetown a 3-2 lead on a goal assisted by David Kalbarski. Milton again tied the score 3-3 five minutes later.

Georgetown gained a victory when Scott Lahey scored assisted by Brad Spears. Lahey's goal occurred with only one second remaining on the clock.
