How To Write A Good Classified Ad

1. Start your ad with the merchandise you are selling. This makes it easier for the reader to locate your advertisement.
2. Always include the price of the item you are selling. Many readers of the Classifieds will not respond to an ad which does not include a price.
3. Place yourself in the readers position. Ask what you would like to know about the merchandise you are selling. Include information such as brand name, colours and other specific descriptions in your ad and you will receive a quicker response from the reader.

NOTICE

The Herald will not be responsible for more than one insertion of a classified ad containing an error. The advertiser agrees that the publisher shall not be liable for damages arising out of errors in advertisements beyond the amount paid for the space actually occupied by that portion of the advertisement in which the error occurred, whether such error is due to the negligence of its employees or otherwise and there shall be no liability for non-insertion of any advertisement beyond the limit paid for such advertisement. The publisher reserves the right to edit, revise, classify or reject any advertisement.

IN MEMORIAM

FRY, Joseph Alfred - In loving memory of my dear father who passed away January 19, 1988.

There will always be a heartache, And many silent tears, But always the precious memories, Of the days when you were here. I hold you close within my heart, And there you will remain, To walk with me throughout my life, Until we meet again.

Lovingly remembered by son Brent.

FRY, Joseph Alfred - In loving memory of a dear father and grandfather who passed away January 19, 1988.

Dad How do I write on paper, The feelings I have inside, Of the emptiness and heartache, I've felt since you have died. To me you were so special, What more is there to say. Except to wish with all my heart, That you were here with me today.

Sadly missed and always loved by your daughter Marsha and granddaughters Melissa, Tara-Lynn and Danielle.
