Photoart '91'

Halton Hills Camera Club is presenting 'Photoart '91', a juried exhibition of photo art.

The contest is open to all residents of Halton Hills. Color and black and white photographs will be accepted, but not Polaroid photographs.

The jury will consist of a panel of three professional photographers.

All selected photographs will be exhibited in the Art Gallery of the Halton Hills Library and Cultural Centre, on Church Street, Feb. 26 - Mar. 24.

On Feb. 26, awards will be handed out to the photographers of the best photographs in the exhibition.

To be juried, photographs must be brought to NRS Brand Realty or Gallery House Sol in a sealed envelope with PHOTOART '91 written on the envelope.

The last day of entry is Feb. 16.

More information on the exhibition may be obtained by contacting either Doug Meal, 873-0300; Peter Moss, 877-4433 or Sandra Timleck, 877-6198.

Fatal accident hearing

The preliminary hearing for the man charged with two counts of dangerous driving causing death involving the death of Georgetown student Trevor Kemp, has been set for Feb. 20.

Chris Pettit is the man charged in the accident that occurred May 26 in the morning in Brampton and ended 20-year-old Trevor Kemp's life.

Mr. Kemp was the passenger in a Monte Carlo which collided with a tractor-trailer. The truck was turning left onto Rutherford Road when the car, travelling west on Steeles Avenue, collided with it.

Mr. Kemp was rushed to St. Michael's Hospital in Toronto but died from his injuries on May 26.

The young man had lived in Georgetown for 10 years and was active in high school sports.
