Magicuts Hair Salon locates at Zellers

Carolyn Boyer has been cutting hair for almost two decades in Georgetown and is hoping her skills, and those of her three employees, will make Magicuts Hair Salon in Zellers a success.

Ms. Boyer is the manager of Magicuts, a chain of hairdressing shops, that opened last month in Georgetown.

"The opportunity came up for me to run this shop and I thought it was perfect timing because the lease for my old shop was just coming up and I didn't want to renew it," she said. Her old shop, 'Nu Dynasty,' opened in 1988. "I'm still in charge, but now, I don't have the pressure of bills."

The Magicuts shop offers full hair service and Ms. Boyer hopes services will expand in the future.

She knows she has plenty of competition in the hairdressing field since there are 27 other hairdressing salons in Georgetown, but she hopes with her experience, the Magicuts name and her staff, she'll do well.

On her staff is Colleen Brown, Jennifer Hartig and Candice Yelland. Ms. Brown has lived in Georgetown for 26 years working in a variety of shops before taking the position at Magicuts. She has over 10 years experience in hairdressing and graduated from the 'Academy' in Etobicoke.

Ms. Hartig and Ms. Yelland both studied at Art and Technique school in Brampton. Ms. Hartig has been in the beauty industry for two years and particularly enjoys braiding and working with long hair. She's a "homegrown" Georgetown girl.

Ms. Yelland has been hairdressing for one-and-a-half years and moved to Georgetown from Alberta.

"I've got a good bunch of girls," said Ms. Boyer. "They work well together which is half the battle."

Magicuts is open from 10:00 a.m. to 8:30 p.m. Monday to Friday; 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. on Saturday and noon to 5:00 p.m. on Sundays.

Why tough times are good times for your RRSP...

... If you'd invested $5,500 in a Trimark Canadian Fund RRSP during the '82 recession, it would be worth $19,636* today.

Is now really a good time to invest? It couldn't be better, because in tough times like these, prices are low and opportunities for growth abound.

That's the value of long-term thinking. And it's why 170,000 Canadians have already put their trust in Trimark - the people whose long-term investment management has earned their clients more than virtually all bank or trust company RRSP products.

If you'd like to share in the value of our long-term thinking, please call your local Trimark representative
