Georgetown Bowl

Georgetown Bowl Seniors Hot Shot of the Week: Robert Harrison

With the qualifying of the Four Steps quickly coming to an end, the senior bowlers are returning their regular routines and those who made the teams are preparing for the many practices that lay ahead for them.

Topping this week's scoreboard was Robert Harrison with a 772(276) triple. Following closely were Mark Prevost 672(258), Christina Lane 653(274), Blake Smith 646(243), Dave Ridley 631(275) and Tonya Morris 607(218).

The men's team has all of it's bowlers securely in place as they have finished their qualifying, whereas the women's team is still awaiting the scores of two last people.

To date, the senior teams are as follows:

Men's Team: Brian Bell (singles), Robert Harrison, Dave Ridley, Eddie Doyle, Jason Ogden, and Joe Robichaud, with Brian Crocker as spare and Ralph Miller as coach.

Women's Team: Christina Lane (singles), Tonya Morris, Laura Doyle, Sharon Shapcott, with the last two team spaces and the singles position going to the following: Sheri Myers, Janice Cano, and Lorrie Prevost. This team will be decided on January 31. The coach for this team is Dee Dee Haynes.

Special congratulations goes out to Christina Lane. Not only did she beat all of the men when qualifying for the Four Steps, in fact, she slaughtered them, but she was also victorious this past weekend at the Youth Challenge tournament. Christina now moves on to the next round in March.

Neilson's Bowling League Bowler of the Week: Albert O'Meara 785(332, 260, High Scores: Greg Fletcher 694(271), Ivan O'Meara 631('254), Jim Ellsworth 629 (258).

On Jan. 26 the Central Ontario champion reps in the provincial finals of the League Executive Championships were all from Georgetown. Derek Edwardson of the Neilson's League participated in the President's Division in Kitchener. Marg Brosseau took part in the Secretaries' Section in Waterloo while Diana Tripp of the Domtar Legue competed in Cambridge.

The only one to achieve any success was by the Smith and Stone secretary, Marg Brosseau, who bowled 67 pins above her legue average. Although not winning the expense paid trip for two to Florida, she still was awarded a prize - a Himark three-piece breakfast set.

George and Dragon leads Halton Darts League race

Mistake last week - I stated that Eric Bristow would be in Acton Legion on Feb. 19. The date should be Feb. 16, the same day as the Legion's darts tourney.

On Jan. 21, Halton League saw the three top teams all score 11-3 wins over their opposition with no change in the standings. Time Out recorded the maximum score gainst the ladies and George and Dragon 1 were one less gainst Copper Kettle 2. Hollywood and George 3 played to a 7-7 tie.

Darlene Wheeler, Brad Youmans and Bruce Hope fired 180 each. Dave Scutt scored three 140s, or was it one? The score sheet provides the confusion in this case. Paul Goudie and 'dummy' beat out Bruce Stevens and Luke Heikamp in doubles.

Ed Patterson, Al Johnson, Rick Harden and Gary Rodda each shot two high scores. Andrea Clifford, Tony Marrows, Dan Fraser, Erwin See, Larry Hunt, Randy Hunt, Dan Charles, Stan Rhynold, Ian McDonald, Ron Duval, Jeff Henderson, Kim Smid, Paul Kirby, Bruce Stevens, Terry Cesar, Brent Gillespie, Paul Goudie, James Tughen and Pete Conway all recorded high scores.

Paul Kirby and Stan Rhynold lead the individual points scoring with 98, followed by Mike Pepper two behind and Rick Harden four behind. Terry Hancock, Erwin See, Pete Pickering, Larry Varey, Ron Scarlett and Dave Nicholls have an outside chance of catching up.

Of the high scorers, Larry Varey has an unusual claim. He has only seven bonus points at the remainder have points in double figures, Varey just wins his games. The leading lady is Shirley Penfold with 57 points and Darlene Wheeler has 46 points, as the nearest challenger.

Paul Kirby, Mike Pepper and Shirley Penfold have three maximums to their credit and five others have two. Some 52 have been scored altogether so far. Kirby, Pepper, Jeff Henderson and self have two high finished and twenty others have also closed out high scores.

Joyce Marrows leads with 129 as the highest finish to date. George 2 and McGibbon 1 are the only undefeated squads and the teams meet again on April Fool's

Day. On Jan. 23, Industrial League held the team triples tourney and the winners were Beau Beaumont, Rod Beaumont and Ron Scarlett of Snowjacks Hustlers. The lads were given a hard fight by Gasketmen Cutters trio, Bruce Hope, Randy Hunt and Jeff Richardson.

Beau Beaumont closed 93 to win the third set for the 2-1 victory. Losing semi-finalists were Cutters Rick Harden, Stan Rhynold and Mark See and the team of Westenders of Eric Fuller, Dennis Thorogood and Brian Hicks.

The consolation was taken by Acadian Pools trio of Tim Field, Barry Sproule and Dan Fraser who toiled over Ensigns' Al Murphy, Roy Rudiger and Harry Bottoms. Paul Kirby and Rick Harden fired 180 each. No other high scores and finishes were recorded to the best of my knowledge.
