How To Write A Good Classified Ad

1. Start your ad with the merchandise you are selling. This makes it easier for the reader to locate your advertisement.
2. Always include the price of the item you are selling. Many readers of the Classifieds will not respond to an ad which does not include a price.
3. Place yourself in the readers position. Ask what you would like to know about the merchandise you are selling. Include information such as brand name, colours and other specific descriptions in your ad and you will receive a quicker response from the reader.

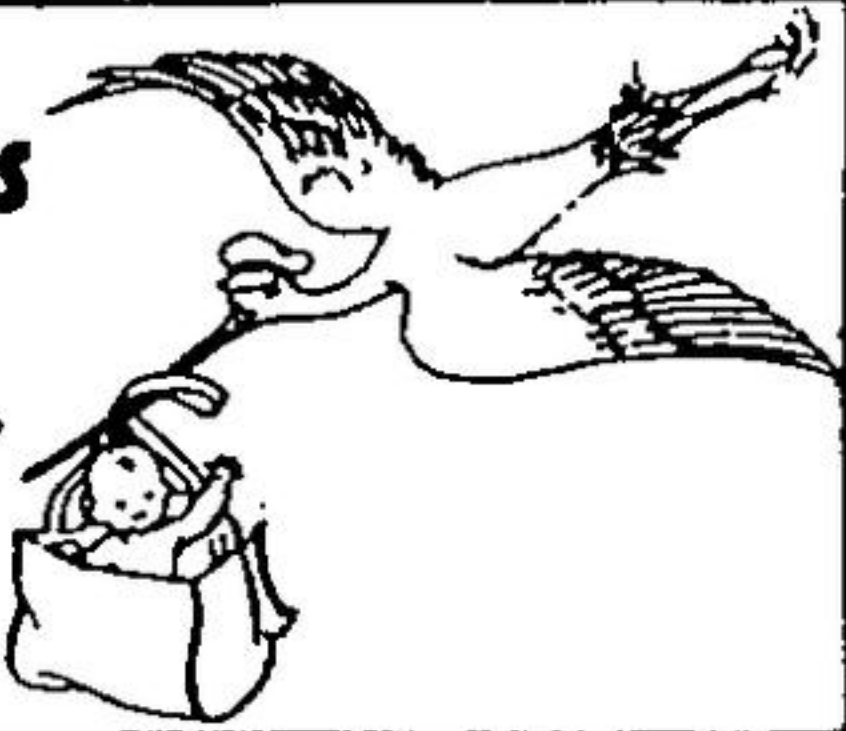

NOTICE

The Herald will not be responsible for more than one insertion of a classified ad containing an error. The advertiser agrees that the publisher shall not be liable for damages arising out of errors in advertisements beyond the amount paid for the space actually occupied by that portion of the advertisement in which the error occurred, whether such error is due to the negligence of its employees or otherwise and there shall be no liability for non-insertion of any advertisement beyond the limit paid for such advertisement. The publisher reserves the right to edit, revise, classify or reject any advertisement.

IN MEMORIAM

COOK - In loving memory of Freda Jeanine who passed away January 31, 1983. Forever loved and always missed by husband Robert and daughters Susan, Carol and families.

LAVOIE, Robert - In memory of a dear father who passed away January 30, 1990.

Beautiful memories are wonderful things. They never wear out, they never get lost, and they can never be given away. To some you maybe forgotten, to others a part of the past. But to us who have loved and lost you your memory will always last. No length of time can take away our thought of you today. We love and miss you, your daughters Nancy and Janet, Sons-in-law Craig and Frank and grandson Andrew.

LAVOIE, Robert - In memory of a dear husband and father who passed away January 30, 1990.

How many times we wanted to talk to hear your opinion and get your advice. You left us quietly. Some of your thoughts unknown. But we have a memory that is ours alone. May God treasure you in His garden of rest. For when on earth you were one of the best.

Your loving wife Barbara and son Rob.

LAVOIE, Robert - In memory of a dear father who passed away January 30, 1990.

Our hearts still ache with sadness. And secret tears will flow. What it meant to lose you Dad, no one will ever know. They say time heals everything. But I know that isn't so, because it hurts as much today as it did one year ago.

Forever in our thoughts, your daughter Jennifer and James.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank all my friends, colleagues and patients for the cards, flowers and wonderful support during my stay in Peel Memorial and Georgetown Hospitals. Many thanks especially to Drs. Corless, Hatch and Macintosh and the nurses and staff in the Orthopedic Ward and Ward B. Special thanks also to Father Cote and Father Durkacy for their spiritual support.
 Dr. Aidan A. Kennedy.
