

Bowling Threesome

Georgetown Bowl last weekend. The three boys and many others found the local alley a fun place to spend a few hours. (Herald photo)

BANTAM

Pro Sport opens series with wins over Milton

Georgetown's M and M Pro Sports Bantams opened their best-of-five series of the OMHA playdowns with two wins last week.

Jan. 24 at home, Milton opened the scoring in the first period, taking a 1-0 lead into the second frame. Milton jumped into a 2-0 lead before M and M's got on the scoresheet.

Defenceman Ryan Hay scored, assisted by Derek Parsons. The second period ended 2-1 for Milton.

Georgetown's hard work paid off in the third period when Paul Kalbarski tied the score with Jeremiah Fondley earning the assist.

On the same shift, Kalbarski picked up his second goal on a nice set-up by Mark Aldridge and Fendley. Georgetown held on and Derek Parsons scored into the empty net to close out the scoring. Steve Onoprijenko picked up an assist on the play.

The two teams resumed play last Sunday at Alcott Arena. The M and M's came ready to play as they outthrust Milton most of the night.

Derek Parsons scored midway through the first period to open the scoring for Georgetown. Ken Brown assisted on the play.

Georgetown took command of the game in the second, scoring four goals to Milton's one. The locals looked very impressive, passing the puck well and outskating Milton to the puck.

Tim Kavanagh picked up two goals and Steve Onoprijenko and Paul Kalbarski each scored in the period.

Dave Bollskoll scored a goal late in the third to round out the scoring, as Georgetown skated to a 6-1 win. Assists went to Mark Aldridge (2), Derek Parsons (2), Ryan Hay and Jeremy Hamp.

The third game of the series will be played Wednesday night in Milton.

Georgetown Pee wee team loses 3 - 1 to Milton

By WENDI GOODHEW
Herald Special

Coach Brian Markham, Mike Marcculi and Chris Goodhew saw their Pee wees play one of their strongest games of the season in game two of the playoffs, losing 3-1 against Milton on Jan. 28.

Milton, which won the first game, came out fast and hitting hard in the first period, and Georgetown's defence toughened up to meet them at the blueline. Trevor Crane made some big hits and a couple of rushes this game to keep Milton on their toes.

Andy Kerslake and Dave Doole were also no easy match on the blueline or in front of their net, as both boys played a tough game.

Milton scored first, but the line of Chris Goodhew, Davey

Wilburn and Chris Corney were hot when a pass from Wilburn saw Goodhew slip one by Milton's goalie to tie it up.

Robbie Pilgrim, Mike Wilinga and Keith Hurt just missed a few times, made some passes and dug along the boards.

Milton scored twice again making it 3-1 for Milton.

Georgetown kept coming right back up to the last seconds but just couldn't get the bounce of the puck to go their way.

Goalie John Moon played an outstanding game and came up with some big saves when called on. Jeff Beauparlant kept the spirits on the bench high.

They will meet Milton again Saturday for game three of their best of five series.

Curling Cooperation

The Waldrum couple of Terry and Valerie worked together on the same team during the mixed curling bonspiel at the North Halton Golf and Country Club last Saturday. Many members of the mixed curling league, which plays Fridays at 7:00 and 9:00 p.m., enjoyed themselves at the weekend competition.

MAJOR PEEWEE

Bruins split games

Bodanis Major Pee wees split their two most recent games with Streetsville Jan. 10 and 13 in a home and away series.

Trailing 2-0 late in the first period at Alcott Arena on Jan. 10, Scott Lahey scored the first Georgetown goal with one second remaining on the clock. Lahey's goal was assisted by David Boere.

David Kalbarski tied the game early in the second period on a play set up by David Kotsos and Gary McNeily.

Georgetown gained the victory halfway through the third period when David Boere beat the Streetsville goalie after receiving a pass from Andrew Elinsky.

Three days later, Bodanis Bruins travelled to Vic Johnson Arena in Streetsville in a return match with the Tigers. The game again was spirited and featured solid passing and hitting.

Streetsville assumed the lead at the mid point of the first period, but a pair of Georgetown goals in the last ninety seconds of play gave the local club a 2-1 lead when the period ended.

Gary McNeily opened Georgetown's scoring in the first period on a goal assisted by Scott Truman. Sixty seconds later, Scott Lahey gave Georgetown the lead after receiving a pass from David Kotsos.

The second period ended in a 3-3 tie as Streetsville outscored Georgetown two goals to one during the ten minutes of play.

Gary McNeily again scored Georgetown's goal in the second period, assisted by David Kotsos. It was the second time in the game that the two had combined in a scoring play.

In a spirited third period, Streetsville scored three unanswered goals to gain a 6-3 victory. The game ended with Georgetown storming the Streetsville net, but unable to narrow Streetsville's margin of victory.

Just prior to Christmas, Bruins met Chinguacousy at the Alcott Arena. In a well played game, the local club managed a 3-2 victory.

Neither club managed to score in the first two periods of action, but early in the third period, Brad Spears gave Georgetown a 1-0 lead on a goal assisted by Gary McLean and Jamie Bottomly.

Shortly afterwards, Scott Lahey gave Georgetown a 2-0 lead. Lahey's goal was assisted by Wes Burke and Kevin Lumb. Georgetown assumed a 3-0 lead with six minutes remaining when David Kotsos scored on a play set up by David Kalbarski and Kevin Lumb.

With only 76 seconds left on the clock, Chinguacousy gave the Bodanis Bruins a scare by scoring two quick goals. Chinguacousy's final goal was scored with only six seconds remaining.
