

Free environment posters

By BARBARA HALSALL
-CLIP THIS-

The Waste Reduction and Recovery Section at the Region of Peel has a colourful poster called 55 ways your business can help save the environment. Clip this column and take it to work with you.

1. Form an environmental committee overseeing recycling programs.
2. Get top management involved.
3. Do a waste audit.
4. Use Peel's recycling director (in Halton call the Ontario Waste Exchange 416-822-4111 or your regional councillor).
5. Develop procurement policies for recycled products.
6. Reduce waste materials from the manufacturing process.
7. Provide a waste reduction suggestion box.
8. Award environmentally friendly products as raffle prizes.
9. Hold recycling competitions between departments.
10. Update staff on company's waste reduction progress.
11. Design environmental logo for letterhead and recycling containers.
12. Encourage other branches to follow your example.
13. Inform customers of your environmental efforts.
14. Circulate memos instead of duplicating them.
15. Write on both sides of scrap paper.
16. Make double-sided photocopies.
17. Use electronic mail instead of paper.
18. Use refillable pens instead of disposable pens.
19. Install energy-efficient appliances.
20. Switch to energy-efficient lighting.
21. Use linen and dryers in washrooms instead of paper towels.
22. Keep office thermostats at 20 degrees C or less.
23. Use windows and ceiling fans to minimize air conditioning.
24. Service air conditioners regularly.
25. Turn off lights and equipment when not in use.
26. Donate old equipment to charities and refurbishers.
27. Donate recycling revenues to an environmental group or cause.
28. Advertise environmental activities of citizens groups.
29. Plant trees and shrubs on company property.
30. Provide reusable mugs, dishware and utensils.
31. Avoid disposable drink boxes.
32. Bring lunches in reusable containers or cloth bag.
33. Discourage the use of drinking straws.
34. Avoid over-packaged goods.
35. Supply soft drinks in recyclable containers or in dispensers.
36. Avoid single serving packages in cafeteria.
37. Reuse packing materials such as polystyrene foam.
38. Offer a return/disposal option to customers.
39. Purchase supplies in reusable containers.
40. Implement an office paper recycling program.
41. Ensure company shredding

- your paper takes it to a recycler.
42. Encourage publishers to use recyclable paper.
 43. Recycle pop cans, container glass and newspapers.
 44. Take home reusable by-products.
 45. Recycle at home.
 46. Install waste reduction equipment to improve handling.
 47. Use environmentally friendly cleaners.
 48. Use environmentally friendly fuels.
 49. Car pool.
 50. Use re-refined oil in company vehicles.
 51. Use retreaded tires on company vehicles.
 52. Conserve water.
 53. Ensure air emissions comply with government regulations.
 54. Participate in fitness activities.
 55. Resolve to adopt at least ten of the above suggestions.

The posters are free to businesses within Peel Region and available for a small charge outside the region. Call 791-9400 and ask for the Waste Reduction and Recovery Section.

Remember telephone books go in the Blue Box as well as magazines. You can make a difference.
