Lions Club celebrates 60 years of service

The Lions Club of Georgetown this past weekend celebrated 60 years of service to their community with a gala dinner at the Acton Legion.

Over 142 Lions and friends of Lions were on hand to help celebrate this milestone.

Plaques and letters were read from all levels of government. Al Cook presented a plaque from the Town of Halton Hills, Marilyn Serjeantson made a presentation on behalf of the Region, Noel Duignan made a presentation on behalf of Premier Bob Rae and the Province of Ontario and a special letter of recognition was presented by Garth Turner on behalf of the Prime Minister of Canada.

Past International Director, Bruce Murray, gave greetings from Lions International and presented President Derek Ezekiel with a special plaque commemorating the occasion.

Guests at the Anniversary dinner were presented with a special club pin in commemoration of the 60th Anniversary "60th Cycle of Lionism."

Part of the evening festivities was the retiring of the Georgetown Lions Club banner of 60 years by Murt Allison Past President from 1961-62 and it was replaced with a new banner by current President Derek Ezekiel. The evening however was extra special for two long time Lions, Lion Dan Boyle and Lion Fred Zorge both with over 33 years of service to Lionism and to their communities.

The evening however was extra special for two long time Lions, Lion Dan Boyle and Lion Fred Zorge both with over 33 years of service to Lionism and to their communities.

Lion Dan Boyle was presented with a Life Membership in Lions International. Dan has been in Lions for over 34 years and was the Georgetown Club President and rose in 1985 to become the District Governor of Lions District A-11. He also was a member of the Governors Council which directs activities in Ontario, Quebec, Labrador and the French Islands of St. Pierre and Miquelon.

Lion Fred Zorge, the other surprised guest for the evening received the Melvin Jones Fellowship, which is the highest award in Lionism. Fred had been a member of the Georgetown club since 1958 and has had 31 years of perfect attendance.

Lion Fred has been involved in four club charter committees, elected in 1971 to District A-11 and in 1982 his club presented him with his Life membership and in 1986 he received the International President's Award, the second highest honor in Lionism.

The evening was to celebrate not only the 60th Anniversary of the Georgetown Lions Club but was also to recognize two very active and dedicated members of the Georgetown Lions Club.
