

Harden tops qualifiers for Darts Ontario singles

The big news this week must be Rick Harden's qualifying for Darts Ontario finals in singles in first place. Harden finished ahead of Mick Sweeney, a provincially and nationally ranked player.

Equally in the big news department are Paul Kirby, Jeff Henderson, Ian McDonald and Mark See who also qualified. In ladies singles Julie McCorry qualified in fourth place.

I am told that Ron Scarlett and I had a good chance of joining the squad had we made the last qualifying and made a point or two. Not for many years has this locale produced as many for the later stages of provincial competition. Milton's Gord Goodband also made the final stages in singles.

Halton League's singles championship took place on Feb. 11 and will be covered next week. In the meantime, all league matches are now made up as of last Monday. McGibbon no. 1 have moved in second place following double wins over George no. 3.

Leading still are George no. 2, seventeen points being the advantage. In third spot are O'Tooles no. 2 with no. 3 being close behind.

The standings show a great difference between top and bottom teams. With 14 teams playing, maybe it is time to consider two divisions.

At the top, it is much closer in competition than in the previous years of the league, which maintains interest to the end. Some teams find it difficult to make a full team and have to forfeit as a result. Which leads me to a question - stand up the real Tim McGuire?

Jeff Henderson scored 180, 140, and 138 for an impressive night. High close went to Hugh Smid, 131, and Danny Fraser 112. Many players came through with high score points, including some "unknowns" - Larry Hunt, Marilyn Lovell, Darlene Wheeler, Brian Ward, Ken Baker, Pete Conway, Colin Hicks, Al Murphy, Doug Weir, Peter Kline and Paul Goudie. The others are more regularly featured in the column.

Oates tourney with Gasketman Cutters defeating Westenders in the final. If memory serves me correctly, this is the reverse of last year's final.

Cutters played well and deserved the win in the end. Rick Harden, Jeff Richardson (who closed out both sets), Stan Rhynold and Mark See represented the winners. Dennis Thorogood, Eric Fuller, Ray Ackroyd and Brian Hicks played for Westenders, runner up.

In league play, Ensigns, Bulldogs, Snowjacks Hustlers and Gasketman Cutters all recorded first division wins. In the second division, Independents, Aces, Firemen and Acadian Pools were the victors. Hustlers were 11 points ahead of Cutters in the first division and Aces move back to second place, some 13 points behind Pools.

Terry Hancock opened 120 and Hugh Smid 108 and Rick Harden closed an incredible 155, triple 20, triple 15 and bull! Paul Kirby, Tony ?, Jim Fisher, Eric Fuller, Beau Beaumont, Erwin See, Stan Rhynold each scored over 100 in first division play.

High opener in the second division went to Graham Griffith with 110 and Gord Inglis shot 102 to open. Ace Bailey's 96 was the high finish. High scores came to Jim Watson, Bill McCartney, Gord Inglis, Todd Axford, Marty Claude, Paul Karolidis and Jim Franks.

This Saturday coming remember, Legion darts at Acton Legion followed by the Eric Bristow show. Should be a great night. See you there.
