

Halton Minor Peewees sweep last three

Halton Minor Peewees primed themselves for the playoffs with victories in their last three games of the regular season.

On Feb. 5, Hurricanes hosted Oakville at Memorial Arena and returned to their early season form jumping out 2-0 early and taking a 4-1 lead midway through the third.

Five minutes into the final frame, the blades fell off and the blue and white had to work a little harder to come away with a 5-4 win.

Andrew Hartholt started things quickly, scoring at :40 of the first, set up by Jamie Briggs and Doug Janjevich.

Todd Miller made it 2-0 at 4:49, assisted by blue liner Paul Neff.

Oakville put some offensive pressure on the Hurricanes late in the period but steady goaltending from Jeff Langille kept them off the board.

Rangers picked up the only goal of the second period and went into the third down by one.

Peter Mashinter combined with Miller and Tom Baynton at :31 of the third, followed by Darin Finlayson's goal from Baynton and Justin Davis at 4:36 to put Halton up 4-1.

After killing off a minor penalty the Rangers took advantage of some Hurricanes miscues to score three times in six minutes and tie the game 4-4.

With 17 seconds left, Mashinter combined with Miller and Baynton for the second time in the period scoring Halton's fifth and pulling out the victory.

On Feb. 9, Hurricanes returned to Barrie, the scene of a 2-2 draw between these teams just eight days earlier.

On this sunny afternoon it was all Halton with netminder Jim Leworthy picking up his second shutout of the season with the 6-0 victory and sniper Todd Miller recording the hat trick.

Doug Janjevich tallied first at 3:00 of the first, set up by Jamie Briggs.

Miller scored his first of three at 4:25 assisted by Paul Neff.

At 5:15 Miller picked up his second, driving the Barrie goaltender out of the game. Curtis Carr and Peter Mashinter had just completed their rendition of hit the bouncing puck and drew assists on the play for their efforts.

Six minutes into the second, Briggs made it 4-0 on his goal from Janjevich and Hartholt.

Leworthy made his shutout save at 2:28, diving across the empty net to get his blocker in front of a hard shot stealing what looked like a sure goal.

Miller got his third at 6:07 on a play started by Mashinter and Colin Page.

The game's first penalty came with just one second remaining in the second period and was followed by seven more in the third.

In between the rough stuff, Janjevich picked up a power play marker at 6:58 of the third to finish off the 6-0 romp.

Winter's chill returned on Sunday and the Hurricanes visited Brampton's Century Gardens for their last game of the regular season.

Halton continued their domination of the Maroons with their fifth win in six meetings, this one by a score of 5-1.

Halton's centres accounted for the five goals with Justin Davis and Todd Miller scoring twice and Doug Janjevich once.

Janjevich, Jamie Briggs and Darin Finlayson picked up two assists each and Andrew Hartholt a single.

Minor Peewees finish the regular season with 21 wins, nine losses and six ties for 48 points, just three behind Burlington with 51.

Hurricanes will meet Burlington in the semi-finals and fourth place Barrie will play first place Chinguacousy in the other series.

Halton was 3-2-1 against Burlington this season.

Tyke house League

Low scoring games abound

Tyke house league action featured three low scoring games on Feb. 9, with Terra Cotta Cookies' 5-1 win over Montego Construction being the biggest margin of victory.

Montego Construction's Sean Reynolds scored the lone goal for his team, assisted by Brent Beaumont and Daniel Roffel.

McFarlane Masonry edged out J.V. Clothing 3-2 in a goaltending battle between McFarlane's Brendan Louth and Clothing's Kyle McIlvenna.

Graham Ovenden, Derek Naylor and Matt Terry scored for McFarlane, assisted by Mike Cook and Jeff Thibodeau. Ryan Bisschop notched both goals for Clothing, assisted by Byron Jacome, Kevin Wagner, Travis Bisschop and Michael Cornell.
